PREFACE

I am highly grateful to Professor Dr. A.B. Singh, my research guide, for his indulgent interest in my work throughout the preparation of the present study. Whatever I have been able to achieve by way of useful results is due to Dr. Singh's co-operation, encouragement and supervision.

I had also been to the centre of Advanced Studies in Linguistics, Annamalai University and the Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages, Hyderabad in order to consult the library and the members of staff. The Directors, Librarians and teachers and research scholars of these institutions extended their co-operation for which the investigator is thankful to them all.

My gratitude is due to the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi which gave me the Doctoral Fellowship for about 2 years. The fellowship facilitated this work very much. At the very start of the work Dr. Ashok R. Kelkar chalked out its plan and programme for me. The discussion of the topic and related problems with Dr. Kelkar and Dr. K. Karunakaran proved fruitful. I owe much to them.

When my work was half way Dr. A.B. Singh joined the Central Hindi Institute, Agra as Professor and resigned his Readership at the Deccan College, Poona. The authorities of the University of Poona did not disturb me by transferring me under another guide. They kindly allowed me to continue and complete my work under Dr. Singh. I thank them all. I also thank the authorities of the Central Hindi Institute for allowing Prof. Dr. Singh to continue as my research guide.

The source of the data I collected in the field are my informants in various districts. Some of them especially Shri Ghan Shyam Dube (at Baypokhar, Basti), Shri Raghubar Pandey (at Bhojpur, Ballia), Shri Virendra Singh (at Lalpur, Jaunpur), Shri Vishwanath Singh (at Karakhiya, Azamgarh), etc. were very hospitable. They arranged also for my stay, helped me to contact other informants, and finally saw me off at the nearest bus stand or railway station. My sincere thanks to all of them.

I also took the advantage of the libraries of the K.M.Institute and the Central Hindi Institute, Agra. I am indebted to the respective librarians and their staff. Lastly I thank all my colleague and friends who took interest in the progress of my work and used to encourage me always. The typist Shri Kali Charna Sharma is highly appreciated for his efficient typing and adjusting his schedules according to my convenience.
