DEDICATED -

To the memory of those who devoted their lives in the studies and practice of Law to uphold justice to every man wherever he situates and also to those individuals who are deprived of fundamental freedom and oppressed for years for not having access to law.