DETAILED CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION & METHODOLOGY

1. An overview 1
2. Conceptualizing victimology 2
4. Development of victim justice policies and practices at international level 11
5. Pioneers in victimology 13
6. Statistical Reality 15
7. Need to control 30
8. Objectives of study 31
9. Research question 32
10. Methodology 32
11. Chapterization 33

II. LEGAL FRAMEWORK TO CONTROL CRIME AGAINST WOMEN

1. Position of women under Indian Constitution 35
2. Substantive Laws relating to crime against women under
   a) Indian Penal code 1860 (relevant provisions.) 40
   b) The Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 56
   c) The Indecent Representation of women (Prohibition) Act, 1986. 71
   d) The Pre-natal Diagnostic Techniques (Regulation and Prevention of Misuse) Act -1994. 74
   e) The Dowry Prohibition Act. 80
3) Procedural laws relating to crime against women.
   a) Relevant Provisions under the code of Criminal Procedure 1973 86
   b) Relevant provisions under the Indian evidence Act. 1872. 90
4. a) Some important judge-made laws recognizing rights and protection of women. 92
b) Some judge made laws regarding protection for victim's witness 104
c) Supreme court guidelines on sexual harassment at workplace 109
d) Judge-made law on trafficking of minor girls 115
e) Judicial decision regarding in-camera trials in rape cases 118
F) Judge-made law regarding examination of victim in rape cases 119

5. State agency to protect women victim
   a) The National Commission for women Act 1990. 123
   b) The West Bengal commission for women Act 1992. 124

6. Court system and court process 127

7. Findings 147

III. LEGAL PROCESS OF CASES RELATING TO OFFENCES AGAINST WOMEN: CASE STUDIES IN WEST BENGAL

1. Case where victim women suffered domestic violence, wife battering on the ground of dowry etc. 150
2. Cases where women are victim of rape. 207
3. Cases relating to dowry death 218
4. Cases where women are victim of eve-teasing, molestation and outraging of modesty 232
5. Cases where women is victim of kidnapping, adduction, sale etc. 238
6. Cases where victim/women are subjected to commit suicide due to abatement. 251
7. Cases where victims were murdered. 280
8. Findings 286

IV. CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

1. An Overview 304
2. Findings 306
3. Suggestions for improving the condition of victims relating to crime against women 317
4. Concluding Remark 332