PREFACE

As classifiers constitute an important structural phenomenon of the East and Southeast Asian languages, after the completion of my M.A. in Linguistics I took interest in this phenomenon and engaged myself in the study of the classifiers of the Thai language which is a Southeast Asian language and happens to be my mother tongue.

I believe that people do not succeed without helping each other. When I was working on this topic I received invaluable cooperation and encouragement from various sources. So, I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge my obligations and indebtedness to my respected teachers, supporters and friends who helped me in completing this thesis.

Firstly, I am indebted to the authority of the University of Calcutta for accepting me as a research scholar and providing me with necessary facilities for research at the University.

I would like to express my deep gratitude to my supervisor Professor Dr. Mrs. Krishna Bhattacharya who managed to give me invaluable time from her busy schedule. She always used to offer me valuable guidance and suggestions throughout the period I wrote this thesis.

I deeply thank Professor Dr. Selvyn Jussy, Head of the Department of Linguistics, Professor Dr. (Mrs.) Sumita Bhattacharya (Bhaduri), Professor Dr. (Mrs.) Mina Dan, Dr. Abhijit Majumdar, Dr. Aditi Ghosh, and Mr. Sunandan Kumar Sen of the Department of Linguistics,
University of Calcutta. I also extend my hearty thanks to the members of the Ph.D. committee of the department of Linguistics, University of Calcutta. They all helped me to enrich my thoughts in Linguistics.

I must not forget to extend my sincere thanks to Mr. Saikat Sanyal, Assistant Registrar, University of Calcutta for his kind cooperation.

I express my deep gratitude to Dr. (Mrs.) Satarupa Dattamajumdar without whose support I could not get confidence in this research work. She extensively helped me in this research work. I am also very much grateful to her husband Mr. Bikash Saha who took care of me as an elder brother of mine. I will never forget them in my whole life. I am really thankful to them, from the bottom of my heart.

I am also grateful to Mr. Syam Sundar Bhattacharya, formerly Head of the Office, Language Division, Office of the Registrar General, India, who imparted me a lot of knowledge in linguistics from different angles.

I also owe my thanks to my teachers Professor Dr. K.V. Subbarao, Professor Dr. R.C. Sharma, Professor Dr. Tista Bagchi, and Dr. Tanmoy Bhattacharya, Dr. Pradeep Kumar Das, Department of Linguistics, University of Delhi. They all encouraged me during my research work.
