ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. S.C. Sinha, Vice-Chancellor, Visva-Bharati, for his guidance during the formulation of the research project, field work, and writing of the dissertation. This work was carried out as a part of the Anthropological Survey of India's regular research project work. I am grateful to Shri H.K. Rakshit, Director, Anthropological Survey of India, for his kind permission to utilize the data collected during the field work in this dissertation.

To my colleagues in the Anthropological Survey of India, I am grateful for various suggestions and criticisms. To Shri P.P. Mahato I am beholden for suggesting the name of the village Kulabahal as a possible area of field work and introducing me to the school teachers of the village. I am grateful to Shri Indranil Pal for patiently typing the manuscript.

To all the Hill Kharia inhabitants of Kulabahal village my debts of gratitude is immense. Among them to Shri Arjun Sabar and Shri Sanatan Sabar I am especially beholden for various helps and critically discussing with me about various aspects of their way of life. I am thankful to Shri Ajit Prasad Mahato, headmaster of the village high school for providing me with accommodation. To Swami Sivananda Giri I am thankful for helping me in establishing contact with the Hill Kharia. Shri Alhad Mahato, Shri R. Karmaker, Shri Subal Paramanik and Shri A.B. Adhikary made my stay in Kulabahal enjoyable by rendering various helps.
