ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I received, while preparing this thesis, generous help from many persons and institutions. First of all, I am grateful to Professor Amales Tripathi, who was kind enough to supervise my research work. I also feel indebted to my teacher and colleague, Professor Rajat K. Ray, for his valuable suggestions on various aspects of this thesis. The authorities and the staff of the National Archives of India, the West Bengal State Archives, the National Library, the West Bengal Secretariat Library, the Bangiya Sahitya Parishad Library and the Calcutta University Library, were always helpful to me, and I take this opportunity to thank them all. I am grateful also to the Indian Council for Historical Research, New Delhi, for financial assistance. And finally, my sincere thanks go to Shri Sajal K. Bhattacharyya, who typed this rather long thesis in a very short time, despite an unexpected machine-breakdown in the midway. The responsibility for errors that still remain is entirely mine.
