ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a great joy for me to express the sentiments of gratitude to the number of people whose assistance has been invaluable to me, from various quarters, during the process of my research work. First of all I owe my gratitude to God, for his insight at every phase of the research.

I am grateful to Dr.K.Sadashiva, Associate Professor, in Department of Studies in History, Manasagangotri, Mysore, for his direction and guidance in handling this research and thesis. His commitment to work, his historical studies and accessibility for assistance have made a great impact on me and enabled me to complete my research.

I remain grateful to the generosity of Rev. Dr. Pius Fidelis Pinto, my brother, a noted Historian, who has shouldered the entire burden of finance towards my studies. I thank him for his guidance, inspiration and motivation during my field study to the different places of Karnataka. As a Scholar of History he has also guided my research work with his vast knowledge and rich experience in this field. I am thankful to him for his constant encouragement and support which sustained me to complete my research.

The research undertaken by me would not be accomplished, but for the assistance, guidance and direction, I received at every stage of development of this topic, from Dr.P.N. Narsimha Murthy, a person on authority on the History of Coastal Karnataka. His knowledge on the study of the history of religion, such as Hinduism, Jainism, Christianity etc, is versatile.

My thanks are due, to the former Superior General Rev. Sr. M. Jyoti BS. and the present Superior General Rev. Sr. M. Wilberta BS, for providing an opportunity to do the research, for the encouragement and blessing all through my study. I am also thankful to the Bethany Generalate team and their staff for providing the necessary material for the research. I remember with gratitude, Sr.M.Rose Ann BS. the Provincial Superior and her team of Western province, Dharwad and the Provincial Superiors and their team, of the Provinces of Mangalore and Bangalore, the region under study, for their continuous support during my field study.

I owe my thanks to Rev.Srs.Lillis and Miriam, the Heads of the Bethany Mother House Archives, Mangalore, for obliging and spending their precious time to locate and to supply the necessary documentary material pertaining to the topic of the research. I must not forget Sr. Noel, for constantly encouraging me to get on with the work and giving me the necessary advice during the hectic days of my work. I can’t forget her patience for having gone through the manuscripts and the proof of the research. I appreciate all the help she has given to me.

My sincere thanks to the superior and the sisters of the Mother House, Bethany Convent, Bendur, Mangalore, for their availability and the hospitality during the time of my research. Thankfully I remember, many of the senior sisters, specially the contemporaries of Msgr. Raymond Mascarenhas, the founder of the Congregation of the Sisters of the Little Flower of Bethany, Mangalore, for making accessible themselves for interviews and sharing the rich inheritance and experiences of the Infant Bethany.

A word of thanks to the superiors and the sisters of the Goa Region of the Bethany Congregation, specially the superior and the sisters of the Bethany Convent, the teaching and the non-teaching staff of Bethany Convent High School of Sao Jose De Areal, Salcette, Goa. My gratitude to all the Superiors of the Branch Houses and the Heads of the Formal and Non-Formal schools of the Bethany Congregation, in Karnataka for their collaboration at the time of the compilation of data.

Many Institutions and libraries have provided me access to various materials for research. My sincere thanks are due to the Xavier Historical Research Center Goa, St. Joseph’s Seminary, Mangalore, St.Aloysius College, Mangalore, St. Ann’s B.Ed College, Mangalore and St.Agnes College, Bendur, Mangalore, Karnataka State Archives, Bangalore, Karnataka Theological College Library, Mangalore, Mysore University Library, Mysore, History department library, Mysore, Karnataka University Library, Dharwad, Goa State Government Archives, Panjim, Goa, Nirmala Institute Library Goa and University Library Panjim, Goa. Distinguished Scholars and eminent historians have given me their precious time for discussion and guidance.
