ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is the account of scientific work of mine for about three years of study, research and devoted hard work at Department of Studies in Botany, University of Mysore which would not have been possible without the help of several persons belonging to the scientific community who had rendered valuable assistance to me in the material fruition of my research. In this regard I am deeply indebted to all of them:

A few lines are too short to make a complete account of my deep appreciation for my Guide/Research Supervisor, Dr. M. S. SUDARSHANA, Associate Professor, Department of Studies in Botany, University of Mysore, under whose supervision the present work was undertaken. His trust and honesty, kind co-operation, unstinted encouragement, constructive criticism and careful supervision set me on the right track to accomplish this great task.

I am thankful to Prof. K.A. Raveesha, Chairman of the Department of Studies in Botany, University of Mysore, Mysore, and Prof. G.R. Janardhana, Former Chairman, for their constant encouragement and for providing research facilities in the Department.

I am also grateful to the former Chairman, Board of Studies in Botany, Department of Studies in Botany, University of Mysore, Prof. T.C. Shivashankara Murthy, Vice Chancellor, Mangalore University, Mangalore. I would like to thank here Prof. K.A. Raveesha present Chairman of BOS. I owe my special thanks to one and all of the Board members.

I would like to thank Dr. Shobha Jagannath, for providing lab facilities. I am also grateful to all teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department.
My Special thanks to my research colleague Dr.M.H. Niranjan, and also all research scholars of the Department of studies in Botany. Specially Dr.Prakash, Mr. Mohammad Reza Radfar, Mr.Dharmendra, Ms.Nagarathnamma, Mrs Malathi, Mrs. Pavithra, Ms.Trivini, Mr.Murali, Ms. B.P. Nandini, Ms B.P. Vidyabharathi, Dr Manijeh Hoseiny Rad and Dr.N. Rajashekar for their constant encouragement and support during my research work.

I am indebted to my beloved parents whose ambition and unflagging love made me to cross all hurdles to reach the destiny. It was their loyalty and conviction that acted as a driving force, behind this work. My husband and my son Shahrad- were with me during my Ph.D. work and extended all love and support to me especially when I encountered difficulties and also they never complained in spite of all the hardships in our life. They have always been one of my best counsellors and I will be failed in my duty if I do not thank them heartily.

Finally, I thank all those who have been of help to me directly or indirectly during this study as well as in the preparation of my thesis.

(Mrs. REZVAN KARAMI BORZABAD)
