First and foremost before I delve into the intricacies of this study, I wish to convey my profound gratitude to my valued guide Dr.(Mrs) Indira Ray, Ph.D.FICSEP (U.S.A.), Reader, Home & Social Science Department, Calcutta University, for her painstaking, scholarly and valuable guidance in accomplishment of this study. Her consistently affectionate behaviour has been a source of inspiration for me. No words can fully convey my feeling of respect and regards for her.

I acknowledge my indebtedness to Mr. Tushar Kanti Ghara, Assistant Professor of Presidency College, Calcutta for helping and guiding me in the statistical portion.

My sincere thanks to different school authorities and teachers for granting me permission to conduct my study.

I am extremely thankful to Mr. Tilak Das Gupta who has very patiently and sincerely done the final typing of the script of the study.
I feel this is an opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my beloved parents and in-laws, Mrs. Padma and Sqn. Ldr. S.C. Tewari, Retd., Mrs Dhani & Mr K.D. Joshi, Ex-Justice of Peace appointed by Governor of West Bengal, sisters and their families for their encouragement and support throughout the study. My husband Kishore Joshi's untiring help and constant encouragement who did the rough typing and his moral support pervades invisible throughout all these pages.

Last but not the least, a special note of thanks to my children Kritika and Rohan for their cooperation for not causing inconvenience to my work with their frequent affectionate interruption. I am also thankful to all those children, their parents and teachers who very patiently answered to my queries and extended their fullest cooperation.
