Acknowledgements

On the successful completion of my thesis, I take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude to my supervisor Prof. (Dr.) M. Padalia for her unfailing support and guidance. Her keen interest, motivation, constant guidance, and encouragement enabled me to complete this thesis. It was because of her foresight on the potential of the theme that I was able to undertake it and fulfill it. Moreover her faith on me always kept my morale high even in adverse of times. Her inspiration and competent guidance went a long way in making this arduous study a pleasurable and rewarding pursuit.

I am highly indebted to Prof. (Dr.) B.L. Shah, Head Department of Political Science, DSB Campus, Kumaon University and Director, Academic Staff College, Nainital for extending his valuable expert guidance and moral support in the furtherance of my research work. I would also like to sincerely thank all the faculty members in the Department of Political Science viz., the ever cheerful Prof. (Dr.) Rajeshwari Pant, the endearing Prof. (Dr.) Neeta Bora Sharma, the ever cooperative Prof. (Dr.) Madhurendra Kumar, the dynamic Prof. (Dr.) Divya U. Joshi and the lovely Prof. (Dr.) Kalapana Agrahari. Still further I would like to thank each one of you for your valuable suggestions and generous advice.

I would also like to place on record my sincerest gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) I.D. Misra, Lucknow University whose benevolent guidance in my research has been a blessing throughout. I would also like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) R.R. Jha, Dean Faculty of Social Sciences, BHU for being generous enough in letting me consult his library and helping me in my research work. Due regards are also paid to Prof. (Dr.) J.N. Sinha, Rajdhani College, New Delhi for his wonderful insights on research and for his timely guidance.

Pursuit of research would not have been smooth without the University Grants Commission Fellowship, and for this I render my gratitude to the UGC authorities for acknowledging me and awarding me with a scholarship under UGC-JRF and UGC SRF.

Getting through my dissertation required more than academic support and I have many people to thank for this. To begin with, I would like to dedicate this work to my Grandfather late Shri S.L. S. Kumaiyan B.A., LL.B., D.I.T., I.A.S., who has been a beacon light to me all these years, my grandmother Mrs. Maya Rani Kumaiyan for her words of inspiration that I deeply cherish, my father Mr. A.R. Kumaiyan M.Sc., LL.B., D.L.T., Gold Medalist Lucknow University whose amazing legal renditions on the subject enlightened me, my amazing mother Mrs. R.R. Kumaiyan who being a proficient postgraduate in Political Science motivated me constantly to give my best and widened my perspective, my ingenious uncle Mr. Mukand Raj Kumaiyan, another adroit postgraduate who hails from political science in our family, for his timely advices which helped me structure this work, my aunt Mrs. Mamta Kumaiyan for her moral support and my siblings Raj Gopal Kumaiyan, a law student, who is a gem of a person and has stood by me unflinchingly and finally Sanskar and Sanskriti Kumaiyan (adorable Sunny and Summy as I call them) for their fun and frolic added life to my work. It is because of the unwavering support of my family members, who stood by me helped me to bring this thesis to fruition. This thesis stands as a testament to your unconditional love and encouragement.

In the course of this journey I was given the opportunity to teach the undergraduate and postgraduate students in the capacity of a JRF and SRF. I thank them all for their good wishes and for making this a memorable itinerary.

I am also thankful to the library staff of Central Library, Kumaon university, ATI Library Nainital, High Court Library Nainital, Uttarakhand Judicial and Legal Academy, Bhowali, Nehru Memorial Museum Library, New Delhi, National Archives New Delhi, Tagore Library, Lucknow University, Oudh Bar Association Library for furnishing me the requisite documents and books.
