

Bordia, Anil. (2009). Education of youth and adolescents in India. National University of Educational Planning and Administration (NUEPA), New Delhi-110016.

Chugh, Sunita. (----------). Data needs for achieving UEE in urban areas: Focus on disadvantaged groups.

Go, Vivian F.; C. Johnson Sethulakshmi; Margaret E. Bentley; Sudha Sivaram; A.K. Srikrishnan; Suniti Solomon and David D. Celentano .(2003). When HIV-prevention messages and gender norms clash: The impact of domestic violence on women's HIV risk in slums of Chennai, India. A Paper Published by AIDS and Behaviour, Vol. 7 (No. 3).

Goswami, Atasi, Nanda. (2009). Study on reasons of dropping out from schools. A Study with Children who dropped out from Mother Project of Tomorrow’s Foundation, A study by Tomorrow’s Foundation.

Provisional Population Census of India 2011.

Sengupta, Atanu and Naibedya Prasun Pal. (2010). Primary education in India: Delivery and outcome – A district level analysis based on DISE data. Journal of Educational Planning and Administration, Volume- XXIV.

Sachdeva, Suman. (------------------). Education scenario and needs in India: Building a perspective for 2025.

The improvement of slums and informal settlements in Freetown (2006). This study on the housing conditions of the urban poor in Freetown, has been jointly funded by UN-HABITAT, The United Nations Development Programme and The Government of Sierra Leone.

The Centre for Global Development Research (CGDR), The Socio-Economic Research Division of the Planning Commission, Government of India.

World youth report (2003). Chapter I (Youth Education)