I have boundless pleasure in placing on record my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my research supervisor Dr. Maya Dutt, who has been a rock of support to me all the way. Without her inspiring guidance and encouragement, her immense patience and care, this thesis would not have materialized.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Jameela Begum, Professor and Head, Institute of English for being kind and supportive throughout the work.

My heartfelt gratitude is due to the Librarians of Institute of English, University Library and the British Library and Late Dr. C.D Narasimhaiah, Director, Dhvanya Loka, Mysore for providing materials for my research. A special word of thanks to Dr. Kalyani Vallath who helped me in proof-reading the thesis.

I feel overwhelmed as I recall with deepest gratitude the moral support extended by my parents and husband whose gentle persuasion and words of encouragement kept me going.

I would like to express my deepest admiration to all my teachers who opened up before me the enchanting world of words.
