ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The researcher would like to thank Dr. Shefali R. Pandya, whom she is indebted to for her expert guidance, invaluable assistance and moral support at all stages of the research. The researcher wishes to express her gratitude to her without whose guidance this work would not have been possible.

The researcher is grateful to Dr. Pratima Shastri-Dave who not only encouraged me to do this research but was always there to help me out whenever I needed her help.

The researcher wishes to thank Dr. Murlidhar Code and Dr. S.S.Pundalik for their inspiration and encouragement. Discussions with Dr. Code on various issues connected with adult and continuing education helped the researcher to clarify several conceptual issues.

The researcher expresses her sincere gratitude to Shri. G.B. Kamadi, Director, Directorate of Education (CE), Maharashtra Government, who permitted her to attend the monthly meetings of District Education Officers (CE) and also granted permission to collect data from the Satara and Ahmednagar districts.

The researcher would like to give a special word of thanks to express her sincere gratitude to Shri. M.R.Kadam, Deputy Director, Directorate of Education (CE), who made it possible to collect the data, even during heavy rainy season at Satara district.

The researcher wishes to place on record her sincere gratitude to Shri. Gaikwad, District Education Officer and Ms.M.G.Sonawale, Dy. E.O. of Satara district and Ms. Suman Deshmukh, E.O.(Primary Education and in-charge CE) and Shri. Katmore, Dy. E.O. of Ahmednagar district and their entire staff who made it convenient to collect the data.
The researcher wishes to thank the E.O.(CE), Satara district for giving permission to establish the reliability of the tools. Thanks are also due to the Supervisor, Shri. Shinde, preraks of NCEC and CEC and the participants.

The researcher wishes to extend her gratitude to the experts for their suggestions.

The researcher gracefully acknowledges the cooperation offered by all field level functionaries and expresses her sincere thanks to all APOs/Supervisors of the concerned talukas, preraks and assistant preraks of NCECs and CECs of the selected sample villages and the participants who were interviewed for AWP's and QLIP's, without whom this study would not have been possible.

A special word of appreciation is due to Shri. Anant Bhosle who helped since the time of registration of this study, that is, typing of the proposal, theme papers, synopsis and graphical presentations in the final thesis.

The researcher also wishes to sincerely thank the typist of this research Shri. B. G. Ubhare, for his patience and neat work.

Last but not the least, the researcher would like to thank her parents, family members and all those friends who have given moral support and without whose blessings this work would not have seen the light of the day.
