ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I feel immense pleasure to express my pronounced regards and deepest sense of gratitude to Prof. S.K. Gupta, Professor of Agricultural Chemistry and Soil Science, University of Calcutta for his able guidance, hospitable attitude and intensive encouragement during the entire research work.

It is always my greatest pleasure to acknowledge Dr. S.K. Sanyal, Senior Lecturer, Bidhan Chandra Krishi Viswavidyalaya and Dr. S.K. Banerjee, Senior Scientist, Institute of Tropical Forest, Jabalpur for their keen interest and valuable advice in conducting this research work.

I must also utilise this opportunity to express my heartfelt reverence to Prof. S.K. Mukherjee, former Vice-Chancellor of this University, whom we all treat as the fatherly figure of this subject.

I owe my thanks to Prof. B. Bhattacharya and Prof. S. Sen, former and present Heads, University College of Agriculture, Calcutta University for providing laboratory facilities during this investigation.

Furthermore, I express my sincere thanks to Prof. A.K. Saha, Geology Department, Presidency College and Prof. K.J. Nath, Sri Arunava Mazumdar and Sri Siddhartha Sankar Maity, All India Institute of Hygiene and Public Health, Calcutta for their generous technical help and extending their instrumental facilities.

I am also greatly indebted to my colleagues, Mr. Monojit Dutta, Mr. Subhendu Adhikari, Mr. Ramen Kundu and Mr. Partha Pratim Choudhury for extending their helping hands and encouragement added with emotional exchanges. I bestow my heartiest thanks on them for their positive approach in this regard.

I am further indebted to Mr. T. Ghosh and Mr. S. Ghosh for taking so much trouble while typing this thesis so as to render it in its present form.

Acknowledgements are also due to my teachers, librarian and other staff of this University.

I also take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my father and late mother for their true inspiration and blessings without which this research work would never have been accomplished. I am also thankful to my wife for her encouragement and help during the period of research work.

Finally, the financial assistance, in the form of a Senior Research Fellowship, and in general this Project received from the Directorate of Agriculture, Government of West Bengal is thankfully acknowledged.
