ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep and cordial sense of respect and gratefulness to my Guru Prof. V.N. Jha, Director, Centre of advanced study in Sanskrit, University of Pune, who taught me fundamentals of Nyāya-sāstra, Mīmāṃsā sāstrā and Western logic, and guided me for this Ph.D. work. It is all due to him only I could enter in the dense field of Navya-Nyāya and able to complete the thesis.

Secondly, I am grateful to Dr. Ujjwala Panse for her guidance, valuable suggestions and moral help. She was of great help.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. Pradeep Gokhale and Dr. Meena Kelkar of the Philosophy Department, University of Pune, who spared their valuable time to guide me in my study of Western logic.

I express my gratitude towards Dr. R.L. Joshi then professor, Sangmeshwar College, Solapur, who induced me to study Nyāya-sāstra and presented books that were necessary for the study of Nyāya-sāstra. I am also thankful to Prof. Mrs. Sheela D. Mistri Dayanand College of Arts & Commerce, Solapur who persuaded me to come to Pune for post graduate studies. I express the same feeling of gratefulness towards Prof S.S. Katkar who gave his guidance on Western logic and suggested books for reference; Prof. P. P. Deshmukh who allowed me to rent books on his name & towards Dr. M.K. Zambare, Principal, Dayananda College of Arts & Commerce, Solapur, for his valuable suggestions and moral support.

I also thank the librarian of Dayananda College, Solapur, Mr. D.D. Deshpande for his co-operation in issuing books from the library.

I am grateful to Dr. Goswami and Mr. Kamble of the C.A.S.S. library for their help and co-operation. I am also grateful to the office staff of the C.A.S.S. for their kindness and consideration. They helped me out every time I approached them.

I must express my gratitude towards the teaching staff of the C.A.S.S. and the Department of Sanskrit & Prakrit languages for their help offered by them from time to time. I am equally grateful to all my friends who stood by me and supported me in every way they could whose names could not be included here.

I am thankful to Dr. Manjul, of the library of The Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, Pune, who provided me his help whenever I approached him.
I take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Mangala Hardas and Mr. C.R. Hardas who not only made my stay in Pune comfortable but also took a good care of me. I also thank Mr. Mukunda Kendurkar and Mrs. Yashaswini Kendurkar for their hospitality during my stay with them.

I am pleased to express my gratefulness towards Mr. Pranabananda Chakraborty for his help, kindness and cooperation.

It is my pleasure to be able to express my gratitude and indebtedness to my mother, father, sister and brothers, without whose caring, patience and encouragement, it would have been difficult to complete the Thesis.

Lastly, I thank Ms. Vaishali Bongale, and Mr. Mohan Shendkar for the English and Devanagari typing and printing of the thesis.

Krishna Hari Kulkarni.