

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am profoundly indebted to my supervisor Dr. Pushpesh Pant for his invaluable guidance and unfailing patience all through my period of research under him. But for his encouragement, it would not have been possible to complete this work.

I am also grateful to the host of foreign diplomats interviewed in this connection. I am specially indebted to Rishikesh Shaha, former foreign minister of Nepal, who helped me considerably in making up for the unavailability of material on Nepal, C. Gunasingham, Additional Secretary in Ceylon's foreign office, Professor S.U. Kodikara, Ray Forbes, Park Nadesan, A. Amrithalingam and Neelan Thiruchelvam, who gave me their valuable time. I am also thankful to Mervin De'Silva, editor of the Lanka Guardian, who gave me insights into the working of the Ceylonese Press.

I am grateful to the Marga Institute, Colombo and the Peradeniya University Library, Kandy, for providing facilities to consult available material. I am also thankful to the library staff of Jawaharlal Nehru University and the Indian Council Of World Affairs.

Last but not the least, I am deeply indebted to my family members and friends who have been a constant source of strength.
