Acknowledgements

First and foremost I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my supervisors, Dr. Urmila Chatterji, Associate Professor, Department of Zoology and Dr. Sanghamitra Sengupta, Assistant Professor, Department of Biochemistry, University of Calcutta for their continued support and direction. Their wide knowledge and logical way of thinking have been of great value for me.

I would like to express my deepest sense of gratitude to Prof. Dhrubajyoti Chattopadhyay, Pro-Vice Chancellor (Academic), Professor, Department of Biochemistry and Biotechnology, University of Calcutta, for constantly showering his blessings and extending his words of encouragement throughout the tenure of my work.

I’d like to acknowledge all the patients who participated in this study as well as our clinical collaborators. I want to specially mention Late Dr. Dipak Kr. Mukherjee, Late Dr. Saroj Gupta, Dr. Arnab Gupta (Saroj Gupta cancer Centre & Research Institute, Thakurpukur, Kolkata), Dr. Suddhasattwa Roy (Formerly, Sr. Radiation Oncologist, Cancer Centre Welfare Home and Research Institute, Kolkata), Dr. Kalyan Sarkar (Ramkrishna Mission Seba Pratisthan, Kolkata) for helping us to collect blood and tissue samples. I’d also like to mention Dr. Sumantra Roy, Dr. Kunal Goutam and Dr. Pradip Kr. Sinha. They always helped me to convince the patients to participate in this scientific study.

I would like to acknowledge Dr. S.N. Kabir (IICB, Kolkata) and Dr. Sushanta Roychoudhury (IICB, Kolkata) for their help.

Nothing would be possible without the financial support by University Grants Commission (UGC) for my fellowship and UPE, Modern Biology for funding the project. I would also like to thank the Heads of the Departments of Zoology and Biochemistry, University of Calcutta, for providing infrastructure and technical support. I would also like to thank the technical scientists from BD Biosciences at the Centre for Research in Nanoscience and Nanotechnology, University of Calcutta, for extending their help during FACS analysis. I am indebted to the Ethical Committee of University of Calcutta to allow me to work with human samples.

I also extend my many thanks to all my academic mentors especially Prof. Biswaranjali Maiti, Prof Dinendra Ray Chaudhuri, Prof. Pulak Lahiri, Prof. Rabindra Nath Chatterjee, Prof. Samir Banerjee, and Prof. Sumit Homechoudhuri of Department of Zoology, University of Calcutta. I am grateful to my teachers Dr. Dipak Ranjan Mandal, Dr. Debasis Mutsuddi, Dr. Prabir Kumar Basak and Dr. Rahul Kumar Dutta for their constant support and encouragement.

I would like to thank my seniors in Department of Zoology and Biochemistry for their guidance. I’d particularly like to mention Dr. Prajna Paramita Basu, Dr. Santashree Sengupta, Dr. Supriti Sarkar, Dr. Romi Dasgupta, Dr. Indraneel Saha, Anushree Das, Dr. Aniruddha Chatterjee, Dr. Diptiman Choudhury, Joydeep Das, Dr. Uddalak Majumder and Dr. Madhumita Basu for guiding me throughout the journey.
I want to thank my friends and my juniors from my lab: Shyamalina, Sanmitra, Suranjit, Rituparna, Subhalakshmi, Dipayan, Atrayee, Janhabi, Ankita and Amrapali. I am very grateful to Debrup Sen, my friend from IICB, Kolkata. Debrup helped me a lot understanding the techniques of ChIP. I am also thankful to my friend Arunava Roy (Department of Biotechnology) who helped me a lot doing the immunofluorescence and cell fractionation studies.

I am thankful to all my junior friends in both departments, especially to Arka (Department of Zoology) and Rajarshi (Department of Biochemistry). They always extended their helping hand whenever needed.

I want to specially mention our former lab attendants Asish Jana and Utpal Gayen for their unconditional support. I also want to extend my gratefulness towards Office staffs and Librarians of Department of Zoology for their unconditional support.

A very special gesture of thankfulness goes to my best friend and my wife Subhadipa. She always supported me and helped me even within her busiest schedule.

I also thank my sister-in-law Manidipa for her constant encouragement.

Last but not the least, I want to thank my parents; Sri. Ashutosh Bhowal and Smt. Bharati Bhowal for their love and support.

Thanks to all of you who directly or indirectly influenced me through these years.

Ankur Bhowal
