CONTENTS

Chapter | Page
--- | ---
Acknowledgement | III
Abstract | IV
Contents | VIII
List of Tables | XV
List of Illustrations, Graphs, Charts, and Maps | XVI
Abbreviation | XVII
Glossary | XVII

I. THEORETICAL FRAME OF THE THESIS | 1
--- | ---
Introduction |
I. Formulation of the Research Problem | 13
II. The Concept of Social Movements | 8
1. Social Movements: A Definitional Debate | 8
2. Components of a Social Movement | 13
   A. Collective Action | 13
      - Organisation | 15
      - Leadership | 20
   B. Social Change | 22
   C. Ideology | 25
   D. Strategies | 27
3. Classification of a Social Movement | 32
III. The Concept of Non-Party Political Organisations | 37
IV. A Brief Exposition of Antonio Gramsci's Theories:

1. Definition of the Concepts
   A. Civil Society and State
   B. Hegemony
   C. Subaltern Classes
2. Importance of Collective Organisation
   - Factory Councils
3. Objectives and Means of Collective Organisation
4. Role of the Intellectuals in the Organisation of Subaltern Classes

II. METHODOLOGY OF THE STUDY

1. Objective of the Study
2. Scope of the Study
3. Definition of the Terms
4. Methods of Data Collection
5. Review of Literature

III. SOCIO-ECONOMIC SITUATION OF KERALA

1. Geographical Features of Kerala
2. Economic Aspects of Kerala
   1. Agricultural Sector
   2. Industrial Sector
   3. The Service Sector
   4. The 'Gulf Boom'
   5. Problems of Kerala Economy—Unemployment and Poverty
   6. The Strength of Kerala Economy—High Physical Quality of the People

III. The Political Situation of Kerala

1. The Political Organisation
2. The Characteristics of the Political System of Kerala
   A. High Level of Political Consciousness
   B. Influence of Caste and Religion on the Politics of Kerala
   C. The Presence of the Communist Parties
   D. The Coalition Politics
IV. The Social Aspects of Kerala
1. The Ezhava Movement 93
2. The Dalit Movement 98
3. The Temple Entry Movement 96
4. Tribals in Kerala 99

V. The Religions in Kerala
1. The Muslims 100
2. The Christians 101

Conclusion 103

IV. SOCIO-ECONOMIC SITUATION OF TRADITIONAL FISHERMEN IN KERALA 105

I. The Fisheries in Kerala—An Overview 105

II. The Economy of the Traditional Fishermen 109
1. Harvesting of Fish 109
2. Processing of Fish 112
3. Marketing of Fish 113
4. Economic Problems of the Fishermen 116

III. Socio-Religious Life of the Fishermen 119
1. The Hindu Fishing Community 119
2. The Christian Fishing Community 120
3. The Muslim Fishing Community 121
4. Common Features of Social Life of the Three Religious Groups 122

IV. Political Life of the Fishing Community 124

V. Cultural Life of the Fishing Community 125

VI. The Socio-economic Background of the Inland Fishermen in Kerala 126

Conclusion 129

V. FACTORS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ORIGIN OF THE FISHERMEN'S MOVEMENT 130
- Participation of fishermen in the Struggles in other sectors 130
- Participation of Fishermen in the Unions of Political Parties. 132
I. Mechanisation of Marine Fisheries in Kerala

1. The Process of Mechanisation

2. The Impact of Mechanisation
   A. Economic and Ecological Destruction
   B. Fish depletion and decrease in Fish Production
   C. Effect of Mechanisation on Consumers
   D. Effect on the Living Standard of the Fishworkers
   E. Emergence of Fishworkers' Movement
      - Historical Necessity of fishworkers to struggle for their Survival
      - The Growth of Class Consciousness

II. Intervention of Voluntary Organisations

1. Organisation of Fishworkers
   Before 1977.

2. Voluntary Organisations

   - Analysis of the Organisations

Conclusion

VI. HISTORY OF THE FISHWORKERS' MOVEMENT - PART I

I. Formation of a State-level Organisation

1. Jeep Rally to Trivandrum
2. Change of Name
3. Formulation of Demands
4. Demonstration in Trivandrum
5. State-level Agitation of 1981
6. Split in KSMIF
7. Growth of the Union

II. Fishworkers' Agitation of 1984

III. Fishworkers' Agitation of 1985

1. 'Fill the Jail Agitation
2. Hunger-Strikes in the Districts
3. State-level Hunger-strikes in Alapuzha

IV. Participation of KSMIF in the National Level Agitation

Conclusion
VII. HISTORY OF THE FISHERWORKERS' MOVEMENT—PART II

I. Change in the Organisational Structure of KSMTF

II. Events in 1988
   1. State Convention of KSMTF
   2. Trawling Ban Agitation of 1988

III. Activities of the Movement in 1989
   1. Kanyakumari March
   2. Trawling Ban Agitation and its Success
   3. Participation of KSMTF in Fishermen's Cooperative Societies

IV. Trawling Ban Agitation of 1990

V. Agitations of Fishworkers in 1991
   1. Trawling Ban Agitation
   2. Fish Disease Agitation

VI. Joint Agitation of Fishworkers of Southern States

VII. Activities of KSMTF in 1993
   1. Trawling Ban Agitation
   2. Legal Battles of KSMTF

IX. Struggles of Fishworkers in 1994
   1. Trawling Ban Agitation
   2. Agitation Against Joint Venture Deep Sea Fishing
      A. First Phase of the Agitation
      B. Second Phase of the Agitation
      C. Discussion in the Parliament about the Deep Sea Fishing

Conclusion

VIII. AN ANALYSIS OF FISHERWORKERS' MOVEMENT AS A SOCIAL MOVEMENT—PART I

I. Collective Action
   1. The Organisation of Fishworkers' Movement
      A. Structure and Nature of KSMTF
      B. Analysis of KSMTF
   2. Leadership in the Fishworkers' Movement
II. Strategies of the Fishworkers' Movement 295
   1. Conflict of Two Forces 295
   2. 'Politics of Order' & Politics of Disorder 296
   3. Confrontational Strategies 297
   4. Conciliatory Strategies 305
      A. Tactics of Lobbying 305
      B. Cooperation with Other Organisations 306
      C. Legal Measures 307
      D. Macro-level Tactics 308
      E. Mobilisation of Public Support 310
   5. Criteria of a Successful Strategy 312

III. The Ideology of the Fishworkers' Movement 316
   1. The Statement of Objective of the movement 317
   2. Criticism and Condemnation of the Existing Structures 318
   3. A Body of Defence Doctrines 321
      A. The Marxist or 'Leftist' Ideology of the fishworkers' Movement 323
      B. The Ideology of eco-friendly and Sustainable Development Model 329
      C. Liberation Theology and the Fishworkers' Movement 334
   4. Policies and Practical Operation of the Movement 336
   5. The Myths in the Fishworkers' Movement 338
   6. The Change in the Ideology of the Movement 340

Conclusion

IX. AN ANALYSIS OF THE FISHWORKERS' MOVEMENT AS A SOCIAL MOVEMENT - PART II 344

IV. Social Change: The Effect of the Fishworkers' Movement 344
   1. Social Changes Among the Fishworkers 346
      A. Legal Changes 346
      B. Changes in the Distribution of Power within a Society 353
      C. Changes in the Social Relations 355
      D. Changes in the Distribution of Rights and Privileges 357
      E. Changes in the Values, Behaviour and Life Styles 358

XIII
X. THE ROLE OF KERALA SWATHANTRA MALAYATHOZHILALI FEDERATION (KSMTF) AS A NON-PARTY POLITICAL ORGANISATION IN SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION IN INDIA

1. Fishworkers’ Movement in the Light of Antonio Gramsci’s Theories
   1. Importance of the Organisation of Subalterns
      A. Subjective Conditions
      B. Primacy of Civil Society
      C. Political Parties and the Fishworkers
      D. Parties and the Fishermen’s Cooperatives
      E. Collaboration of KSMTF with left Parties

2. Means of Collective Action
3. The Role of the Intellectuals in the Fishworkers’ Movement

II. KSMTF as a Non-Party Political Organisation
1. Limitations of KSMTF
2. Strengths of KSMTF
3. Future Possibilities of KSMTF as a Non-Party Political Organisation

III. The Role of Non-Party Political Organisations for Social Transformation in India
1. Presentation of the Data
2. Analysis of the Data—Conclusions

Conclusion

BIBLIOGRAPHY

APPENDIX
   Interview guide