Acknowledgements

I take this opportunity to express my sincere and deep sense of gratitude and respect to my supervisor Dr. Durga Basu, Head and Associate Prof. of the Department of Archaeology, University of Calcutta for giving me the chance to carry on my research work after the sudden and unfortunate demise of my respected supervisor Dr. Asok Datta. I wish to express my heartiest thanks to her.

I would like pay my respect and homage to the memory of late Dr. Asok Datta, Department of Archaeology, under whose guidance I started my research work.

No less I am deeply indebted to Mr. Amal Roy, Deputy Director of Archaeology, Government of West Bengal for his suggestion, guidance and encouragement to undertake the work.

I extend my thanks to Dr. Bijay Chowdhury, Director of K.P.Jayaswal Research Institute, Patna for providing me the information and photographs of his excavation site Panr. I am also thankful to Umesh Chandra Dubedi, Director, Patna Museum for permitting me to take the photographs of some Early Historic Terracottas of his Museums.

I would like to acknowledge Dr. S.K.Mitra, (the then) Superintending Archaeologist of Archaeological Survey of India, Kolkata circle and Kamalesh Srimani, Senior Photographer of Archaeological Survey of India, Kolkata circle for allowing and providing me with some of the photographs of Tamluk.

I thank to Dr. Sumita Guha Sarkar, Assistant Keeper and Shiharan Nandy, Photograhar and Dark-room Assistant of State Archaeological Museum, Behala for assisting me during my documentation work for my research in that museum.

I owe enormous thanks to Dr. Chittaranjan Patra, Assistant Library and Information Officer, Indian Museum, Kolkata for providing me some of the rarest book of Indian Museum library.

I am thankful to my senior colleague Dr. Banani Bhattacharya, Research Fellow, The Asiatic Society, Calcutta for helping me throughout my research work.

I am thankful to Asutosh Museum and Art Gallery, Calcutta University, Acharya Jogesh Chandra Purakriti Bhavan, Bishnupur, Museum and Art Gallery, Rajbari, The University of Burdwan for their extending cooperation for allowing me to take the photographs of the antiquities housed there. I am also thankful to the private collectors of South 24 Parganas specially to Devi Sankar Midya, Joggeswar Chowdhury, and Kesab.
Chandra Bandhapadhyay of Mangalkot, Burdwan for giving me valuable information and photographs of local antiquities.

My thanks are also due to all staff of my Department of Archaeology, University of Calcutta for extending their cooperation.

No words seem to be appropriate to thank my parents for everything they have done for me. I thank my two sisters, Mousumi and Manashi for their understanding, encouragement and affection bestowed to me during the difficult times of my career.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi for granting me junior research fellowship for completing this dissertation.

I express my academic indebtedness to all authors whom I have referred here.

May, 2013
Department of Archaeology
University of Calcutta
Calcutta, INDIA

Munmun Mondal