ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I bow to God, the Creator, and to whom I owe my very existence.

The successful completion of this thesis was made possible through the valuable contributions of a number of people. To say ‘thank you’ to all of you is not even enough to express my gratitude.

Words are not enough to express my sincere, gratitude obligation and indebtedness to my research guide and supervising teacher Prof.(Dr) Razeena Padnam, Professor and Director, School of Behavioral Sciences ,Mahatma Gandhi University, P.D. Hills, Kottayam. Without her expert advice and support, this thesis work would not have materialised. Her uncompromising quest for excellence has exceptionally inspired and enriched my growth as a student and as a researcher. I consider it as a great honour and privilege to be guided by her.

I am thankful to Dr.P.S.Sukumaran Professor, School of Behavioral Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, P.D Hills, Kottayam for his kindness in extending all help especially in analyzing data and for the crucial contribution to the successful completion of the thesis.

I cannot forget to express appreciation to Mr.Sajeev, Librarian, Teachers, Students and Office Staff of the School of Behavioral Sciences.

In presenting the research work in the form of this thesis, I am also indebted to many. Though it is practically impossible to mention each and every name, I would like to make special mention of gratitude to

- Dr.M.M.Rajeev, Assistant Professor in Social Work, Amrita Viswa Vidyapeedam, Vallikkavu, Kollam for the help extended by him.

- Smt. Managala Kumari, Assistant Librarian, Department of Sociology, Kariavattom, University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram.
- Smt. Gourikutty, Library Assistant Department of Psychology, Kariavattam, University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram, Librarian and office staff of Campus Library, Kariavattom, Thiruvananthapuram.

- Sri. Rajadas, Alappad Grama Panchayth President (at the time of Tsunami) for giving valuable information regarding the relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction programmes in Alappad.

I express my sincere gratitude to all who have participated in the study and the Kudumbasree volunteers in Alappad Grama Panchayat and Chavara Grama Panchayat for their kind co-operation during the data collection stage.

Further as a personal note, I would like to place on record my heart felt thanks to my dear wife Mrs. Mayadas for her constant encouragement, cooperation and assistance, which was crucial in completing this work. I remain grateful to my mother in law Mrs. Lalitha Das, my parents and my family members for their inspiration and help.
