On the completion of this thesis, I look back and find myself indebted to so many people, who were around not only during the course of this work, but who also laid the foundation for making me capable of reaching where I am today.

My supervisor, Dr. Ritu Priya Mehrotra has been extremely patient with my follies, always encouraging me to strive for the best. Her constant support lent my work not only clarity of vision, but also a sense of direction.

Also, I would like to thank all the faculty members and non-teaching staff of the Centre for lending their support in innumerable ways. I am especially thankful to Mrs. Rastogi and Dinesh for helping me avail the facilities of the documentation unit.

I owe my thanks to Mr. S.M. Afsar, ILO for guiding me and providing me with all the necessary information. I feel a deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Cherian Joseph for his indispensable motivation throughout.

Dr. Zafrullah, Assistant Director, VHS-APAC, had long back initiated me to the problem of people living with HIV/AIDS and has always been there whenever I have needed his help.

This study would not have materialized without the permission of the Dean, AGMGH and the Project Director, TNSACS. I am indebted to them. In Tiruchirapalli, Dr. Dhanapaul, Medical Officer In-charge, VCTC, was a constant source of inspiration. His sincerity and commitment to the cause of HIV/AIDS helped me gain a better understanding of the issue. The counsellors at VCTC, Kathiresan and Manoharan helped me interact with the patients. The lab technician, Krishnaveni was warm and friendly and educated me about the process of HIV testing.
There were a lot of people who helped me in various ways and at various stages of my fieldwork. I am thankful for their advice and assistance to Dr. P. Kuganathan, UNICEF Consultant, Dr. Senthamizhan from TNSACS, Ms. Shyamala from SIAAP, Mr. A.K. Ganesh from YRG Care, Mr. Rama Pandian of TNP+, Ms. P. Kousalya of PWN+ and Ms. Vimala, District Public Health Nurse.

At this moment, I remember J.B. Manzil, Uncle, Akka Mess and Nawab Theru Pati who made my stay at Trichy comfortable during my fieldwork.

Not only is the friendship of Biju and Abhirami invaluable to me, they have also been 'my family away from home'. Besides, Rajendram anna, Shanthi akka, Sivabalan anna and his family, Bala, Radhika, Balakrishnan, Sugandhalakshmi, Robert, Sofia, Sanjeev and his family, Anil ji and his family, Ramesh Madnani, Alfred anna and his family, Biju, Devi, Raju and his family, are all a part of my relationships that I will cherish for the rest of my life.

My 'family' has always accepted me as I am and rendered unconditional support at every step in my life. I value the strong bond that I share with all of them. I hope I will be able to do justice to the immense faith they have in me.

I am deeply indebted to the VCTC attendees who despite their pressing problems shared their time and experiences with me. I dedicate this work to them.
