Dedicated to Amma and My family
Acknowledgement

“Acknowledgement is the only way to keep love alive.”

-Barry Long

I express my gratitude to the Almighty and my spiritual guru, Amma, without whose grace this dream would not have materialised. I am thankful to my thesis advisor, Dr Harini Jayaraman for her willingness to guide me through this project with all possible support and encouragement. I am grateful to her for her time, inspiration, and the constructive criticism that helped me polish my thesis report to its final shape. I acknowledge the motivation and support of the Management of the university. I convey my hearty gratitude to all my teachers starting from my pre-school days till my Post Graduation, particularly Dr Vijay Nair, who played a significant role in grooming the student in me. Dr Vijay Nair’s and Dr K K Sujata’s kind words of support and encouragement have always stood by me whenever I felt low. With deep pain in my heart I remember the interviews I had with Late Dr Sr Shiela who helped me tremendously in spite of her poor health. I am grateful to Dr Sr Kripa for her advice and encouragement. I am also thankful to the librarians of the various libraries that I visited. I am indebted to Late Dr Bhagwan for his kind words and the books that he provided and also to Late Dr M P Chandrashekharan for his unconditional support and encouragement.

I would like to convey my special thanks to Ms Sudha, from the PG Dean’s office for all the administrative help that she provided. I can never forget the willingness with which she cleared all my procedural doubts whenever asked. I extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr Sindu M. R. who played the role of a senior handholding a junior and explaining all the nuances in the academic convention. Dr Indu B, my friend and senior from the Amritapuri campus has also helped me by sharing some ideas. I thank Dr Geetha Sentthilkumar for instilling confidence in me. My most sincere thanks are due to my friends Dr Ashapriya and Dr Mohanagiri for their kind help. I express earnest gratitude to all my friends and colleagues, particularly Dr Krishnalalitha, Ms Harsha Pandya, Ms Surya, Ms Suchitra, Ms Teena, Dr M.G. Hari, Ms Shobana, Ms Sudakshina, Mr Akhil, Ms Akila, Ms Sandhya, and Ms Ambika, who have helped me in one way or the other.

Words are not enough to thank my family for their unconditional support throughout the long toil. I must acknowledge the unreserved contribution of my parents and my aunts. I also thank my brother for his words of encouragement. I record my gratitude to my co-sister, Dr Reshmi, who gave me great moral support and also accompanied me to various libraries for data collection. I am also grateful to my husband and my son for allowing me the time and the peace of mind that was imperative for this endeavour. I remember and acknowledge each individual who has assisted me in one way or the other in this long journey of seven years.
