Words or phrase can not adequately express my indebtedness, still I try... It is with great pleasure and deep sense of indebtedness that I acknowledge here the invaluable help rendered by my teacher, family member and friends and all those who have been associated with this work directly and indirectly without whose contribution and co-operation this work could have not been possible.

First of all, I want to express and record my most heartfelt indebtedness to Dr. Yashwant Kumar Singh, Reader, Deptt. Of Psychology, P.G. College, Ghazipur, who agreed to guide me for this work and under whose supervision this work is completed. He has always been a "Source of Learning" for me.

I am deeply indebted the principal of my college Dr. A. N. Singh for admitting me as a research scholar in his institution and for his blessing and academic fostering offered by my esteemed teacher Dr. Om Prakash Srivastava, Reader and Head, P.G. Department of Psychology; Dr. A. P. Pandey, Rtd. Reader & Head, Dr. V.D. Mishra, Rtd., Reader and Dr. Rajendra Prasad, Reader, who inspired me for joining research work and extended their all genuine help to me at all stages.

It was the genuine help of the educated unemployed youth who served as subject in this study. I acknowledge their help grateful and request to Government for the attention of educated unemployed youth.

I am thankful to my colleagues Mr. Chandra Bhushan Chaubey (Research Scholar) for offering their most intimate favours which made this work possible. I fall short of word in expressing my gratitude to my friends Mr. Vindhyachal Prasad (Counselor), Mr. Asish Kumar Singh (Counselor), Mr. Amit Kumar Dubey (Forester), Mr. Pratap Kumar Tiwari (Research Scholar), Mr. Satish Kumar Vishwakarma (Kishan Mitra) and Mr. Mukesh Kumar Singh (Research Scholar) helped me in Data collection and encouraged me throughout.

My sincere thanks are due to my father Sri Vijay Shankar Singh (Farmer) and my mother Smt. Sheela Devi (House-wife), for their continuous blessing, encouragement affectionate and unfailing assistance to me. I am highly indebted to my elder father Sri Mangla Prasad Singh, Rtd. Technical Assistant, Department of Agriculture, Varansi for time to time valuable suggestion and continuous blessing.

I express my heartfelt obligation and acknowledge the love and affection of my elder sister Smt. Bandana Singh and Jija Ji Mr. D.P. Singh which kept me on work throughout the study.

I am also thankful my elder brother Mr. Kundan Singh and Bhabhi Smt. Chanda Devi and younger brothers Mr. Gurudeep Singh, Mr. Shiddharth Shankar Singh, Mr. Bharat Singh and Mr. Bahubali Singh for various kind help.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr. M.P. Singh, Lecturer, Deptt. of Psychology, Kuba Mahavidyalaya, Dariyapur Nevada, Azamgarh, Dr. O.P. Tiwari, Lecturer, Deptt. of Economics, P.G. College, Ghazipur, Sri Sharada Nand Upadhyay, Clerk, Examination Controlling Office, V.B.S. Purvanchal University, Jaunpur and Sri Triloki Nath Yadav(farmer), Mardah, Ghazipur for their helpful suggestion and encouragement.

I must also thanks to Sabiul Hasan, Rtd. Lab. Asst. of Deptt. of Psychology, P.G. College Ghazipur for their kind co-opreration.

I am deeply indebted to the Librarian and all Library Staff of Central Library- B.H.U. Varanasi, V.B.S. Purvanchal University Jaunpur and P.G. College Ghazipur for extending very happily and encouragingly the library facilities in completing this work.

Last but not the least, I express and record my appreciations and Indebtedness to Mr. H.N. Pandey, Avon Computers, P.G. College Chauraha, Gora Bazar, Ghazipur for taking the pains in typing this thesis and giving it presentable form Ramcharitra Manas.

(Gautam Singh)