Grateful thanks are due to my supervisor, Prof. A. C. Mohapatra, for patiently guiding this work through, for his innovative vision of research and learning and for continually encouraging me in my endeavours as a student; to Prof. Zahid Husain, respected Head of the Department of Geography, NEHU; to Profs. S. Singh and D. K. Nayak, for their insightful comments and guidance.

For the Guwahati-phase of the survey, I have to particularly thank Shri. Dhruba Hazarika; Shri. Ashish Bhutani, IAS, Guwahati Development Department (GDD); Smti. Pomi Baruah (GDD); Shri. Pratik Hazela (DC, Kamrup); Shri. D. Kalita (ADC, Kamrup); Shri. Manish Thakur (Commissioner, GMC); Shri. Ratul Baruah (Jt. Commissioner, GMC); Shri. Pritam Saikia (CEO, GMDA); Shri. A. Chetia, (HUDCO, Guwahati Regional Office); Shri. S. Saikia (ASHB). Many thanks also to Shri. Sazzad Alam for his prompt help and Smti. Julie Goswami for assisting me in the household survey.

For the Shillong-phase of the survey, I would like to specially thank Shri. J. Lyngdoh (DC, East Khasi Hills); Smt. A. Nikhla (ADC, East Khasi Hills); Shri. F. B. Chyne (Ex. Engg., SMB); Smti. Susantha Khongwir (Water Works Inspector, SMB); Smti. R. M. Kurbah, (MCS, Commissioner, MSHB); Mr. E. Syiemlieh, (Accounts Officer, MSHB); my heartfelt thanks to Smti. Genia Kharsyntiew for her assistance during the household survey.

Sincere thanks to Shri. Danny M. Synnah, Shri. Reppenstar Khongjee, Shri. S. Thangpong and Shri. Bring Blessing Rynathiang, for helping me so immensely in the preparation of maps. I also thank my friends in the Department of Geography, NEHU, with whom I have had many fruitful discussions about the research, especially in the course of presentations and interactive sessions organised by them as members of the Geographical Research Forum, NEHU.

This endeavour would not have reached completion without the unvarying support of my parents; I especially thank my mother who encouraged me to continue with my studies during difficult times. I also extend my gratitude to my aunt, Smti. Sipra Das, who graciously accommodated me in her house for the six months of the household survey at Guwahati; my cousins, Shri. Manas Das and Shri. Monoj Das, for their vital help and assistance.

I lastly thank all those individuals who have, in their own way, been a part of this work.
