ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Any achievement requires the combine effort of several people and it applies to this present study as well.

First and foremost the investigator expresses his heartfelt gratitude to his supervisor Mrs. Rihunlang Rymbai who has taken the trouble to guide and direct the investigation from the outset. She has made an effort to read and correct whatever he has presented to her, time and again, and who has given valuable opinion and suggestions to improve the study that he has undertaken.

He is thankful to the Headmasters/Headmistresses of the Secondary Schools of Ri-Bhoi District and the teachers who have extended their assistance in the collection of the materials/data necessary for the investigation of the study undertaken. He is also very appreciative of the efforts made by the students of the Secondary Schools of Ri-Bhoi District who were co-operative with filling up the questionnaires distributed to them.

The investigator also wishes to thank the librarian and other staff members of the Library of North Eastern Hills University, Shillong and North Eastern Council (NEC) who have given him access to the books in the library as well as guiding him to find out books and materials from different sources in the Library.

Last but not the least, he would like to remember with gratitude, all his friends, readers and well wishers who have had a hand in making this study a successful one. He expresses his sincere thanks for their support and encouragement.

Date: 5th November, 2013

Laurence Kharluni