Acknowledgements

It gives me immense pleasure to articulate a weighty appreciation to all those timeless efforts spent in writing this thesis. Albeit, this is no longer one-upmanship and immeasurable encouragement has been on my way all the time.

First, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my research supervisor Prof. E. Haribabu for his guidance and encouragement throughout this work. His help and concern is always invaluable: his placidness and unassuming nature forever oblige me and I am greatly indebted to him for providing me an opportunity to work with him. I hope to live up to his expectations in future as a researcher.

I am thankful to Prof. Chandrasekhar Bhatt, Head, Department of Sociology for his concern and timely co-operation since MA days. Special thanks to Dr. Vinod Jairath and Dr. Sasheej Hegde for their constant support and guidance. I am also grateful to all my teachers - Dr. Laxminarayan, Dr. Vijayatilakam, Dr. Surinder Singh Jodka, Dr. Aparna Rayaprol, Dr. Janardhan and Dr. Purendra Prasad for their valuable suggestions and continuous support.

I am thankful to the non-teaching staff of Department of Sociology: Madhu, Suryanarayana and Thirupathaiah garu for their help and cooperation all these years. I thank the Dean and other faculty members of School of Social Sciences, specially Dr. B.V. Sharma, Dr. Siva Prasad, and Dr. B. Nagarjuna for their keen interest in my academic progress. I am also thankful to Dr. Kulakarni, Dept. of Philosophy and Dr. P. Appa Rao, Dept. of Plant sciences for their encouragement.

My heartfelt thanks to beloved brother TLS Bhaskar for his constant support and help in different ways since my P.G days.

I am grateful to my colleagues Raghava Reddy, Karnesh, Prafulla Gorada, Laxmi, Krishna Rao, Parvathi and Shubasish Sahoo, for their cooperation and support at various stages of my work.

My sincere gratitude to my seniors Ramesh, Gurram Srinivas and Sudarshan for their constant encouragement and judicious help. I am extremely thankful to my “like minded peer group”: Think Tanks Team - Abbas, Stephens, Srinivas and Harish for their help in academic debates and in shaping this thesis work.

I am also thankful to my fellow Research scholars and friends, Sadanand Sahoo, Marshal Titto and Ajaya Sahoo.

I am delighted to put across my gratefulness to the end-less list of my friends for their love and affection, extended to me and made my stay at HCU as the most memorable event in my life. I thank Sravan, Arun and Sukumar for all those joyful and fun-filled moments and encouragement that kept me afloat all the time.

I am also grateful to Ravi Kumar, Tor being there always, Satish, Narsaiah, Rambabu for their persistent help at various levels during my MA and PhD.
I am thankful to Reddy Giri, Praveen, Balaji, Majumdar, Srinivasan, Chenna Reddy and Easwarappa for their constant support and timely advices. I am also thankful to my wing mates Fanta, Alok and Panda for making my stay very peaceful and comfortable.

I am extremely indebted to my ever-lasting friends Jacob, Kiran Kumar and his family members for their unvarying encouragement and wholehearted interest in my work.

I am appreciative of my department juniors Remya, Sambit and Muneer for their encouragement and the interest they showed in my work.

I would like to thank UGC for financial assistance and my respondents for kind co-operation during fieldwork. I am also grateful to the IGML (Library) staff for their cooperation.

Finally, I am deeply beholden to my parents for their sacrifices and motivation in building my strength of conviction, which enabled me to fulfill the present endeavor. I am also grateful to my brother Srinivas and sister Bharati for their moral and emotional support, whenever I needed them the most.

Nagaraju Gundemeda.
