ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost I would like to offer my thanks and praise to the Almighty God-Jehovah for the unfailing grace and blessings he showered upon me throughout this endeavour.

I am highly grateful to my supervisor Professor R.C.Sharma for his constant incisive suggestions and valuable guidance in preparing this thesis. Indeed, I owe my sincere gratitude to him for showing keen interests in my research work and without whose support this thesis would not have been possible.

During the course of my field trip to Australia and Singapore I had the opportunity of interacting with several academicians, eminent scholars, media persons and officials, all of whom were immensely helpful to me. They enthusiastically discussed the subject at length in spite of their tight schedule. I would like to express my special thanks and appreciation to Commodore Sam Bateman at the University of Wollongong for providing all relevant material and documents from his office. I also wish to express my appreciation to Professor Edward Wolfers and Dr.P.M.Sales who took a great deal of time off from their busy schedule to discuss the work and various issues related to it. A very special note of gratitude goes to Lieutenant Commander Max Herriman, who took me to the University of Sydney and the Australian National University (SDSC) for the purpose of interviewing academicians and eminent scholars.

At the Australian National University (ANU), I would like to thank Ms Susan who granted me liberal access to the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre Library and also arranged a study room for me. I was very fortunate to have met several eminent scholars from this University, who were extremely kind and helpful. Among them were Professor D.Ball, Professor Richard Shand, Dr. Sandy Gorden, Capt. Jack McCaffrie, Dr. Steward Woodman and many others, without whose suggestions and assistance I would not have been able to procure much of the material used in this research. I have no words to express my affection and thanks to Dr. K. P. Kalirajan for his sympathy and assistance.

At the University of Monash, La Trobe University, University of Sydney, New South Wales University and National University of Singapore, my sincere thanks go to many people, particularly Professor Joseph Camilleri, Dr. Donald Rothwell, Dr. Gale Dixon, Professor Robin Jeffrey and Dr. Marika Vicziany for sparing valuable time with me in discussing the subjects.

My sincere gratitude is also due to the Librarians and staff of Menzies Library (ANU), Chiefly Library (ANU), Fisher Library (Sydney) Centre Library (Singapore), National Library (Singapore) and La Trobe Library (Melbourne).

My stay at Canberra was a pleasant and a comfortable one thanks to my friends Mr and Ms Ben. My heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Visier and family who arranged for accommodation during my stay at Melbourne. Dr. Xavier and Ms Heather also deserve a special mention in this regard.

My collection of material would have been an extremely difficult task had it not been for the assistance of Librarians and staff of the JNU library, the IDSA library, the Nehru Memorial Library, Sapru House Library, the American Centre and the British Council Library.

My special thanks to Vizol, M. P., K. V. Pusa, MLA, Vamuzo, MLA, Neiphiu Rio, Minister of PWD, Nagaland, Nillo Rengma, Minister of Education, Nagaland, Dominic and Family and Krodi for going out of their way to provide additional financial assistance for my field trip.

I owe my heartfelt gratitude to Visielie, Cherian, Peter, Kalyan, Prashan, Sankari, Joy, Kovi, Bharti, Yazhu, Khrieno, Moses, Asen, Anil and Weno for helping out in the final stages of the thesis. Their sincerity and kindness shall be remembered always. Indeed, my stay in JNU was made into a pleasant one due to the presence of such bosom friends.

My sincere thanks also to Mr. T.M. Varghese who typed this thesis.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to my beloved family members Kesovil, Madjii, Ale, Kole, Anodi and Akocii. It is their inspiration and ceaseless prayers that kept going with my studies. I owe everything that is mine and whatever success in life to their endless love and care.
