TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 1

Perceptions of difference 6

Narratives of progress 10

A concerned public 14

Postcolonial significances 17

Keralam in the grid of transitions 27

Regarding the time-frame covered in this thesis 36

Thesis overview 38

SECTION I: Shaping Desire in the Modern Way: Registers in History

CHAPTER 1

Blueprints of Progress, Prescriptions for ‘Revival’: Body and Self in-

Early Malayalam Magazines 45

Public sphere in early modern Keralam 49

Reformation, the subject and a language of desire 54

The formative stages 58

Sexuality and propriety 64

Gender, Domesticity and Sexuality 71

Unnatural desires and gender non-conformity 82

Conclusion 87

CHAPTER 2
The Making of Thathrikkutty: Smarthavicharam, Sexual Morality and More

Section I: Exoticising the ‘local’: Smarthavicharam in late 19th century descriptions

The context: combination of caste and sex in late 19th century Keralam

Section II: The early anxieties

The textual interpretations

“Give me a bottle of rose water and you can have it …”

Conclusion

SECTION II: Re-forming the Hegemonies: Postcoloniality, Sexual Morality and Homosexuality

CHAPTER 3

(Hetero) Sexual Excess: Social Realism in Mid Twentieth Century

Social Realism in Malayalam literature- general trends

Revolution, the emergence of “bad stories”: the moral havoc

Swavargarathi, Sadhacharam and Asleelam (Homosexuality, Morality and Obscenity)

Shabdangal

The constitution of an informal, ‘censoring’ public and a- “digressive” space

Intertextuality

Text and context
Pennu 230

Conclusion 242

CHAPTER 4

Canons of Desire: Sexual Morality and Homosexuality in 21st century

Keralam 247

Aberrant subjectivities: the Flute in local settings and cruising spaces 255

The politics of family, reproduction and progress 268

The contemporary textual space 272

Conclusion 284

CONCLUSION

Modernity, Sexual Morality: Knowledge Networks and Genealogiesof Desire 288

REFERENCES 298