Acknowledgements

There are some debts which cannot be paid back. A student owes one of this kind to his or her teacher. Hence it is a futile attempt on my part to express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Suman Gupta. She inspired my thoughts all along and kept constant vigil to keep my thesis on the right track.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. R. P. Singh who helped me throughout my present work with his scholarly suggestions as well as moral support.

I owe my thanks to the Philosophy Group of the J. N. U. which provided me chances for active participation in the weekly seminars organised by it and thereby helped me to open up and broaden my outlook.

For the same reason I am grateful to the I. C. P. R. for giving an opportunity to attend a number of national and international seminars sponsored by them.

Thanks are due to my friends - especially Tilak, Razzaque and Anand for their encouragement and help. I extend my thanks also to Rajesh, Sreelatha, Sudershan, Jayanti, Devika, Raj, Vikram, Manjari and Mithilesh for their friendly gestures.

My words fail me when it comes to my near and dear family members - my husband and my sons - Neel and Shubhlu. They left no stone unturned to help me in the pursuit of my work.
