ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study has been carried out under the supervision of Prof. S.G. Mahajan, retired Librarian and Prof. and Head Department of Library and Information Science, University of Pune. I am very much grateful to him for his encouragement and guidance from time to time. Earlier he also encouraged me to participate in the project of preservation of manuscripts, sanctioned by the Govt. of India to the Jayakar Library, University of Pune, which prompted me to undertake this study.

I sincerely thank the Authorities of the University of Pune, for permitting me to undertake and complete this study.

The seeds of Marathi study were embedded in me by late Dr. M.P. Pethe, the then Librarian and Head Dept. of Library Science, University of Pune. During his tenure I started my professional career. I pay very humble tribute to his memory.

I am extremely thankful to the scholars and librarians, who helped me to collect data required for this study. Discussions with scholars like - Dr. R.P. Goswami, Dr. Saroja Bhave, Dr. V.N.Jha from the Dept. of Sanskrit, University of Pune and Shri V.L. Manjul, Shri N.B. Marathe, Dr. Laddu etc. from Bhandarkar Oriented Research Institute Pune, Shri M.K. Kulkarni, Librarian, Deccan College Pune, proved very useful for this study.

I am grateful to number of scholars from Marathi Department, University of Pune, Dr. B.D. Phadke, Dr. Kalyan Kale, and specially Dr. Ashok Kamat, Professor from the 'Namdeo Adhyasana', and Dr. H.V. Inamdar, retired Professor of Marathi S.N.D.T University Pune for their guidance at various stages.

I am equally indebted to all of them, who during my study tours, lectures, writings in newspaper and through seminars, helped for collection of data.
I must equally keep on record, the knowledge in preservation/conservation of Library materials, which I could acquire at Indian conservation Institute, Lucknow and the University authorities for permitting me to undergo the training for six weeks. Dr. M.B. Konnur, present Librarian and my colleagues in the Jayakar Library reliev ed me for the said training. I am thankful to them for their kind co-operation.

The concrete contribution in data collection has taken place due to responses to my questionaire. I am very much thankful to all the authorities of the concerned institutes and related persons.

The discussions with Dr. Vasant Joshi, Dr. S.R. Chavan, Dr. Kotbaj from Kisanveer Mahavidyalaya Wai, and Dr. Sarojini Vaidya, Director Rajya Marathi Vikas Sanstha Mumbai, were quite helpful and encouraging. The help rendered by Dr. S.M. Aiyachit, Dr. V.V. Kulkarni from Nagpur, Dr. Y.M. Pathan., Dr. Kurundkar from Aurangabad, Shri S.G. Joshi from Latur, Shri. Balasaheb Patil from Paithan, Shri. P.N. Kulkarni, Shri Karvirkar and Shri Krishna Gurav from Kolhapur is very much helpful for this study.

Computer graphics, charts etc. have been drawn by K. Pravin Kumar from Department of Computer Science. Colour prints have been taken by Pradnya from Dept. of Physics. I owe deep gratitude to them.

Final shape to this presentation by way of data entry and neat printouts goes to Miss Bhagwati Mukhedkar and Mrs. Sunita Tandale and Mrs. Boravake. I am equally thankful to them.

Finally, I am grateful to all my family members for extending their cooperation in completing the study and bear my absence from home for quite a long time.
