ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am most indebted to Dr. S. N. Karlekar for this work right from its initiation to its completion. It was his constant encouragement, pioneering role in the field and patience that made this work to see the light of the day. He opened the treasure of methods, materials and ideas in research in geomorphology, which helped me in understanding the finer details of the research topic. Working with him was a learning experience not only in geomorphology but also in many aspects of knowledge, technology and outlook. I owe him lot more than I can express.

I am grateful to Prin. S. A. Deo, Gogate-Jogalekar College, Ratnagiri for his total co-operation and encouragement in the completion of this thesis.

I would also like to thank the Principal, Sir Parshurambhau College, Pune for providing all the necessary facilities in the department of Geography, S. P. College, Pune.

It was the parental supervision by Prof. S. V. Shendye, former Vice-Principal and Head, Department of Geography, G. J. College, Ratnagiri, which provided the necessary boost for the successful completion of this research venture.
The discussions with Prof. V. S. Phadke, Head, Department of Geography, University of Mumbai were of immense use in putting the research problem in a proper perspective.

Dr. H. S. Samant, Department of Geology, St. Xavier's College, Mumbai provided G.P.S. unit used during the field work and helped in many more ways. Dr. Tandel, Department of Physics, University of Mumbai assisted in dating the samples. Dr. Chandrashekhar Sakurkar provided help in gathering references as well as sharing ideas.

Shri. Achyut Behere, Shri. P. B. Behere (Kurdhe), Shri. R. A. Mulye (Phansop) and Late Mr. Hemant Joshi (Kasop) provided local information. I would like to put on record my sincere thanks to all of them and my colleagues and my students for their help in the frequent field visits.

Dr. U. W. Paranjape (Mavlange), Shri. D. W. Patwardhan (Ganeshgule), Shri. K. D. Kale (Pawas), Dr. A. N. Karlekar, Smt. Sumati Karlekar (Ratnagiri) and Mrs. Aparna Karlekar, (Pune), have always helped and encouraged me in too many ways. It is my great pleasure and duty to thank them all.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Shri. C. M. Purandare (Cartographer) Dept. of Geography, S. P. College, Pune and Mrs. Pournima Thakurdesai for their cartographic and typographical assistance.
Members of my family Mrs. Sae Thakurdesai and Mr. Mahendra Thakurdesai always assisted me in every possible way. My parents Mr. Chandrakant and Mrs. Rohini Thakurdesai are my source of inspiration in the completion of this thesis.

This work is an outcome of sincere help and co-operation from many other people. I express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere feelings to all of them.
