ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a great honour for me to study at the University of Calcutta, one of historic universities in the world, as a Ph.D. Research Scholar.

For the successful completion of my research project, there are many individuals to whom I have to express my gratitude for their direct or indirect encouragement and support during the time I undertook the research work for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Pali, at the Department of Pali, University of Calcutta. My research work would not have been completed without their encouragement and support.

Firstly, I am very pleased to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my most respected supervisor Dr. Jayanti Chatterjee, Associate Professor, Department of Pali, University of Calcutta, Kolkata, India, for her careful guidance and good tutelage throughout the preparation of my thesis. Without her hard task of careful supervision, my research work would not have reached its timely completion. She is one of the most loving and caring teachers I have met in my life. It is a great pleasure for me to get opportunity to undertake my research work under her supervision.

I am also deeply grateful to other teachers of the Department of Pali, University of Calcutta, namely: Prof. Bela Bhattacharya, Prof. Mani Kuntala Halder (De), Dr. Saswati Mutsuddy, Dr. Aiswarya Biswas, and Dr. Subhra Barua, for their careful instruction.
And also, I am very glad to express my heartfelt thanks to my esteemed retired Professor Dr. Sukomal Chaudhuri, Kolkata, India, for his kind attitudes, inspired comments and helpful suggestions. Without his suggestions and guidelines, my research project could not have been considered as a complete work.

Secondly, with profound sense of gratitude, I am very pleased to acknowledge my warmest thanks to my monastic teachers- Ven. Pañīndriya and Ven. Guṇīssara, Myanmar, to my parents- U Than Hlaing and Daw Aye Kyi, and to my sister and brother- Ma Moe Moe Hlaing and Mg Thura Linn Linn, Myanmar, for their encouragement and support throughout my life.

Thirdly, I am very thankful to my supporters- U Kwi and Daw Kin May family, and U Myo and Daw Phyu family, Myanmar, for all facilities they have provided to me during my study in Myanmar and India.

Fourthly, I am very much obliged to Mrs. Kum Kum Barua, Miss. Alo Barua, Mr. Pradip Barua and his family, Mrs. Chandan Barua and her family, Mr. Dipankar Barua and his wife, and their relatives, Kolkata, India, for their affectionate assistance and care when I was studying in Kolkata, India. I am blessed to meet with them. Their generous minds and serene attitudes will stay in my mind forever.

Fifthly, I am very deeply grateful to the Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor, Pro-Vice-Chancellors, the Registrar, and all other officers and staffs of University of Calcutta who have given me essential help and who have done necessary work for my studies... progress. Without their help and work, I would have never been able to complete my study.

Lastly, my thanks are due to those who have provided encouragement and support to me in several ways all the time in pursuing my studies in Myanmar and India. I am deeply indebted to all of them and I would really like to acknowledge my sense of gratitude to them, mentioned their names individually, because all of their names deserve to be mentioned. But, unfortunately I cannot mention all of their names individually. For this, I really tender my deepest apologies to all of them.
