ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to place on record my heartfelt gratitude to a host of people without whom this thesis would never have been completed.

First and foremost, I am deeply indebted to my supervisors, Prof. Nandu Ram and Dr. Vivek Kumar, whose valuable guidance and constant encouragement provided me moral and intellectual support. Their patience and forbearance enabled me to overcome my shortcomings. I am grateful for their generosity and kindness and sincerely acknowledging their contributions in bringing the thesis to its completion. My special thanks to their family members for their nice hospitality and good wishes.

My regards and gratitude are also due to all the members of the faculty of the center for the study of social systems, especially the present chairperson, Prof. Anand Kumar, for providing me an intellectual stimulating environment that encouraged me during my research work.

My thanks are due to all my 1996 batch mates who have constantly encouraged me during my stay in the university.

Heartfelt thanks and deep sense of appreciation goes to the Indian Council for Social Science Research (ICSSR) New Delhi for awarding me the Doctoral Fellowship from the year 2003 onwards. The grant took care of my financial needs, especially the field study and so in helping me to finish my Ph.D work.

I remember with thanks the assistance provided to me by the staff of the Libraries of the center for the Study of Social Systems, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Ambedkar Chair, CSSS/SSS Library especially Mr. P.D. Singh, Research Associate and Teen Murti Library, New Delhi.

My appreciation also goes to the respondents including the youth and the leaders of the Caste Organisation of Devendra Kula Vellar and Thevar Community in Mangapuram, Rajapalayam Taluk, Virudhunagar District and Urvudian Kudiruppu, Tirunelveli District without their support and responses, I would have not submitted this thesis.

Various sources of material provided by Tamil Nadu theological Society in Madurai, 'Madurai Peoples’ Watch Group', Janodayam Social Education Centre in Madras, Specially S. Jayapaul, G. Israel, and R. Jayakumar and also Dr. Thangaraj, University of Madras, have helped me in my work. The faculty of the Department of Sociology, Loyal College, Chennai was also helpful. I also acknowledge Dr Bharathan, and the support of the human rights groups, Kalam, Tirunelveli and Prabakaran ASP, Virudhinagar, who helped me in my work for collecting some the reports related to the study area.

My special thanks are due to Prof. Chandra Mohan Reddy, professor and Head, Department of Sociology, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, who have been a source of encouragement that enabled me to complete this study. And also thanks to Prof. Krishnamoorthy, Prof. Kaliappan, the staff and students of the same Department.

My special thanks are also to the faculty and the Head of the Department of Sociology, Madras University, Prof. Jayalakshmi, who have encouraged me in my work, as well as in my academic pursuits.

My heartfelt thanks are due to Mr. Chellappa (lecturer) and family, and Dr. P. S. Chandra Prabu (lecturer) Raju's College Rajapalayam, who have taken care of me during my entire fieldwork and for other guidance.

My deep sense of appreciation goes to Mr. Gopala Krishnan (I.F.S.), who has been a constant source of encouragement and support during my stay in J.N.U. My thanks are also to his family members who have helped me immensely during my fieldwork.

I am taking this special opportunity to thank the persons who have prayed for my success in all spheres of life.

My Special thanks are due to Mr. P. Suresh, lecturer, D.U and my junior Suresh Babu for their long hours of support that enabled me to complete this work.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my family for giving me an opportunity in pursuing academic carrier and I remember my Amma and Nanna, brothers, (Mr. Nageshwara Rao, Mr. Prasad and Mr. Miller) and sister (Mrs. Manickyam and Mrs. Emaelia), brother-in-laws and sister-in-laws, brother’s and sister’s daughters and sons. No words can repay back of the contingent comfort by the family members. It is difficult to trace in detail the sufferings of my parents, though passing through crushing miseries of the life they did not allow an iota of this contextual reality to fall on my academic pursuit. More over, they spared me from every domestic duties at this age when every parent would like to serve them. I thank all my relatives in Bangalore and Andhra Pradesh for their encouragement and concern in my career.

I am highly indebted to my Bava (brother in law) S. Jayapaul, whose constant inspiration encouraged me throughout my carrier.

I am also very thankful to Mr. Chandra Sekharan who took pain of typing this thesis. If certain names are missing, still their names are not missing from my heart.
