ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My sincere acknowledgements are due to -

1. Dr. S.B. Gogate, without whose constant support and invaluable guidance, this study would never have been complete;

2. ICSSR for supporting the research financially;

3. Prof. M.P. Rege for keeping up my morale during times of deep distress and helping me stand by my principles during such times;

4. Staff of the District Adult Education Office, Pune, without whose cooperation the study would have been impossible. A special mention must be made of P.O. Shri M. Ranade, APO Shri Kashid and Shri Puranik - supervisor of the Pune City area. Shri Puranik spent much time with this investigator in locating the centres, arranging meetings etc., special thanks to him;

5. Thanks are also due to Smt. F.Z. Tarapore, Principal, S.N.D.T. College of Home Science, PO Smt. P. Chikarmane and other concerned staff of the same college for their participation, support and cooperation for the research.

6. The Hope Foundation needs a special mention for providing space throughout the project period for the fortnightly training meetings.

7. The Director and the staff of HPTC, and H.E.E., Pune helped by providing useful information and material;

8. Supervisors of the Government Health Education Scheme for important inputs in the data.

9. The ex-staff of SRC, Maharashtra, who are amongst my dearest friends, for their total support for the project. Special mention must be made of Shri S. Zagade, Smt. Nalima Mehta and Smt. Kusum Phule, who helped in data collection at one stage of the study; the latter two also serving as resource persons for training of instructors as part of the study;

10. Dr. R. Arole, Director CRHP Jamkhed, Shri S. Tanna Asst. Director, Dept. of Adult and Continuing Education Bombay University, Smt. M. Prakash Director of Adult and Continuing Education,
Dept. of the S.N.D.T. University, Smt. R. Bansival, Chief Nutritionist of CRS, Bombay Zone; all of whom found time from their busy schedule to review the model and make invaluable suggestions;

11. UNICEF + DAE Dept., New Delhi who provided an opportunity to prepare a Nutrition Education visual aid kit in an earlier project. This kit proved invaluable for the present project;

12. The participating instructors who took full interest once their initial inhibitions were overcome, supervisor of the H. Sc. programme, faculty members of the Centre of Educational Studies, Director of IIE, the library staff of IIE, Ex and present research scholars at IIE, Shri J. Sabane of the publication Department of IIE and Smt. Parkhi, Statistician, for their help and support throughout the project period;

13. My present employers - Directors of Centre for Development Studies and Activities who kept up their promise of allowing the required time for my research when I took up the job with them in the last five months of my project period;
14. Without my cousin Shri Martand Khare escorting me to the rural classes in the Mulshi area, evaluation of these classes would have been impossible, in view of lack of buses to communicate and problems of security due to late hour of the classes. I am indebted to him.

15. All the resource persons who aided training/AE free of charge. A special thanks to Smt. Shobha Bhagwat, Smt. P. Khare and staff of FPAI, Pune.

16. Last but not the least my mother Smt. W. Sahasrabudhe, who had the difficult task of keeping up my ever sagging morale, and bear the brunt of the tensions every investigator goes through.
