ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am thankful to a number of individuals who made this work possible and a reality. Every one of them spared their time and extended a helping hand in their own way. First of all I am thankful to my supervisor Dr. G. Sudharshanam, for his constant encouragement and patient guidance during the course of the study. I am equally thankful to Prof G. Haragopal, with whom I had constant interaction from conception to the final stage of this thesis. His valuable insights about the research subject and his _midas_ academic touch shaped the present study.

My thanks also due to other Faculty members of the Political Science Department, University of Hyderabad, Dr. Shanta Sinha, Dr. Rajan Harshe, Dr. Sisir Bhattacharayya and Dr. Eshvaraih for their kind indulgence about the progress of my work.

In the field, P. Murugasen needs a special mention here. I am grateful for all the help he rendered to me. I am also thankful to his parents whose hospitality moved me. I am equally thankful to K. Nammalwar, whose discussions and insights about the area had gone into the writing of the _thesis_. My heartfelt thanks to Oscl, Prithivi, Balu, Kumar and other members of 'Kudumbam' for making my long stay in the field a pleasant and enjoyable experience.
I am grateful to our former Director General, National Institute for Rural Development Mr. T.L. Shankar, for allowing me to go on study leave. I was moved by the kind indulgence shown towards the progress of my thesis by Mr and Mrs J. Lyngdoh. I am equally thankful to Mr. A.V.S. Reddy former DDG for his constant encouragement to complete my work.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge the concern shown by Dr. S.K. Bhanja, Director, Centre for Institution Building for Training towards my work. My colleagues Mr. P. Janardan Rao, Amurtha Sagar and Gulam Ali deserve special thanks for their help.

Many of my friends need special mention here with whom I had many hours of discussion on the present work. My thanks are due to Sunil B. Ray, N.G. Satish, Oommen John, Gangi, Prakash, Rajini Kanth and Suman Chandra.

Many individuals helped me in acquiring computer literacy. Of all Mr. R. Venkatramanan deserves special thanks for teaching me basics of computer packages. I am grateful to staff of the Computer Centre at NIRD particularly to Raj Kumar, Shankar, Ramchander, Satish, Bhommayya and Murthi.

I am also equally thankful to Varman, Muralidhar and P.S. Mani for typing and editing the work in computer and Mr. Subha Rao, the Cartographer who had drawn the maps.
