ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The task of preparing my Ph.D. thesis on the theme ‘Studies in the History of Prostitution in North Bengal: Colonial and Post-Colonial Perspective’ is made easy by the painstaking care, help and guidelines generously rendered by Dr. Anita Bagchi (Professor in History, University of North Bengal). I am very thankful to all my teachers, colleagues, friends who supported and encouraged me to do work on this topic. Special thanks to Professor Debes Chandra Deb (Retd., Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal) for his invaluable suggestion. I am also grateful to Durbar Mahila Samanway Committee and the other NGOs, the sex workers of different red light areas, the authorities of local police stations, municipalities, courts, hospitals, libraries of different districts in North Bengal; without their help I could not complete my thesis.

I also acknowledge the help and services that I received from the staffs of the State Archives in Kolkata, National Library in Kolkata, Social Science Centre in Kolkata, Library of University of North Bengal, Centre for Himalayan Studies at University of North Bengal, Centre for Women Studies at University of North Bengal, Cooch Behar State Library, Darjeeling District Library, Jalpaiguri District Library, Durbar Mahila Samanway Committee at Sonaganchi in Kolkata.

I sincerely thank all the staffs from office of the DSP crime in Jalpaiguri, office of the DSP in Siliguri, office of the Commissioner of Police in Siliguri and those persons, offices, institutions who helped me directly or indirectly to carry out my job. From the bottom of my heart I would like to thank Sri Amit P. Javalgi (SP, Jalpaiguri), Sri. K. Joyraman (Commissioner of Police, Siliguri), Smt. Sujata Ghising (PA of Commissioner of Police, Siliguri), Sri. Avijit Das (IC, Kotowali Thana or Police Station, Jalpaiguri), Late Dr. Anupam Sen (Ex. MLA, Jalpaiguri), Dr. Snehangshu Saha (Health Department, Jalpaiguri Municipality), Sri. Sandip Mukherjee (Tax Collector, Jalpaiguri Municipality), Sri. Subrata Bagchi (Chairman Office, Jalpaiguri Municipality), Sri. Ashok Sarkar
(Head Clerk, Administrative Department, Jalpaiguri Hospital), Sri. Jagadish Roy (Officer, Department of Information and Culture, Govt. of West Bengal, Jalpaiguri), Dr. Nripen Paul (Writer of Cooch Behar), Sri. Ajoy Mishra (Document Officer, Centre for Himalayan Studies, NBU), Sri. Kajal Kumar Barman (Central Excise and Service Tax, Siliguri Office), Sri. Sanat Sarkar and Sri. Bimal Paul (Communist Workers, Siliguri), Smt. Mithu Chakraborty (Co-ordinator, DMSC, Siliguri), Smt. Bharati Dey (President, DMSC, Kolkata). I express my gratitude to Smt. Keya Chakraborty and Sri. Avijit Sutradhar for helping me to complete my Ph.D. thesis.

I am indebted to my aunt, my only sister and her husband for their support. And above all, I must express my gratitude to my father Late Titen Mustafi who was always with me whenever I visited the red light areas for my survey. He passed away in 2007 and after that my mother Late Sipra Mustafi played the same role. She also left us in 2014. But my parents will live in my heart and my work forever.

Last but not the least I owe my special thanks to almighty god for giving me power to do my job sincerely.
