Sometimes even language is not enough to express your gratitude to the persons you owe your success. And, the same is happening with me. Still I am trying to code my feelings in this most astonishing invention of human kind.

I owe a great thanks to a great many people who helped me writing this thesis. My deepest thanks to Professor Nishtha Jaswal, the supervisor of the work, for guiding and correcting me all the time during my research work. Without her help, the completion of the research work would have been a distant reality. I would also like to thank Professor P.S. Jaswal for his guidance.

I would also extent my hearty thanks to my lovely Husband Mr. Vineet Poonia and sweet & beautiful one year daughter Rudranshi Poonia who motivated and inspired me during this research work in many ways up to completion.

Although, I cannot count all of my family members, but especially I thank to my mother and brother Mr. Vikas Rohal who motivated me to start this research work. But still there are some people like my sisters and bhabhi who helped me to do this research dedicatedly. They have an imprint on my life. In these, I have one valuable friend Dr. Vidushi, who helped and inspired me through many of daily difficulties and kept me in good spirit. In spite of all I would also thank to Dr. Lakhwinder Singh for giving me his valuable guidance and time.

I am also thankful to the staff and members of Department of Laws Library and A.C. Joshi main Library of Panjab University Chandigarh and all others libraries, Archives and Museums, those who helped me find and collected data during me research.

At last, I am very thankful to the Campus of Panjab University, Chandigarh which provides me a scholarly environment and gave me a chance to develop my faculties of mind.
