Acknowledgement

I owe sincere and earnest thankfulness to my guide, Professor Amit Konar for his relentless inspiration to strive for the best of knowledge and to excel in research, is being illustrated across the pages of my thesis. His presence was the enormous value add in the field of Emotion Recognition and its always been a privilege to me to have his guidance throughout. Inspiration from my co-guide Dr. Aruna Chakraborty was always an added attainment to complete my dissertation.

I also reckon it a great boon to be backed with support from the present head of the department, Professor Subir K. Sarkar, and previous Heads of the Department, Prof. Salil Kumar Sanyal and Prof. Bhaskar Gupta. It was also a pleasure to express my gratitude to Prof. Souvik Bhattacharyya, the Vice-Chancellor, for his valuable inputs.

The realization of this practical work would not have been possible without the whole-hearted co-operation from fellow researchers and students of our lab for making my stay enjoyable and memorable. I am grateful to put on record the contribution of Rajshree, Pavel, Sauvik, Basabdatta, Pratyusha, Dhrubojyoti, Suparna, Anwesha, Saugat, Anuradha, Archana, and Arup in this regard.

A big thank to my Family for their constant encouragement especially to my beloved husband Mr. Deb Rishi Roy for indulging me to work long hours and to sacrifice some of our together time to complete this work. The most importantly the credit for completion of this work has been the everlasting support and words of optimism from my parents, Mr. Pramatha Halder and Mrs. Anima Halder, without them nothing would have been possible. I owe my all to them too. Also, the unfathomable love and affection from my sister, brother-in-law, parent-in-laws, sister-in-law, and my dearest nephew and niece Rishi and Rini always kept me happy during the hard period of my research.

Finally I thank all my well wishers who have contributed directly and indirectly towards the completion of this work and the almighty GOD… for everything.
