Acknowledgement

All praises be to Allah Almighty, the Creator, The Sustainer, The Beneficent, The Merciful and The Lord of the universe, who made it possible for me to accomplish the task which was beyond my ability and power. May His blessings and mercy be on His Servant and Messenger Muhammad (SAW) the seal of Prophethood, his family and his Companions.

By the Grace and Mercy of Allah Almighty my research work now came to be completed. During the preparation of my thesis, I have received generous help from various quarters that I want to acknowledge from the core of my heart. At this sanctified juncture there is a legion of preceptors, pioneers, historians, soul-mates, well-wishers and relatives who are to be remembered with gratitude and supplication. Even though these valuable pages are insufficient to express my warm regards and boundless gratitude, I am endeavouring here to that adventure.

First of all I owe my hearty gratitude and obligation for the successful completion of this onerous mission to my learned and kind-hearted supervisor, Prof. Zafarul Islam, for his benevolent guidance, sympathetic behavior and keen interest in my research work. The continuing interest he has shown during this work greatly encouraged me. I have been intensively benefited from his objective criticism and useful suggestions during the course of this work.

I must express my highly thankful to the respected Chairman of the Department of Islamic Studies, Prof. Sayyid Alsan, whose advice and direction always has been great source of assistance and support for the completion of my research work.

I am equally thankful to all the faculty members Dr. Ahsanul Haq, Dr. Muhammad Ismail, Dr. Obaidullah Tahad, Dr. Adam Malik Khan, Dr. Abdul Hamid Fazili, Dr. Abdul Majid Khan, Dr. Ziauddin Malik, Dr. Bilal Ahmad Kutti, Dr. Ghazanfar Ali, Dr. Aijaz Ahmad and Dr. Intiazul Hoda, for their scholarly advice, motivations discussions and encouragement to complete my research instilling positive values.
I would like to remember my teacher (Late) Dr. Tauqeer Ahmad, for his benevolent approach and guidance. May Allah reside him in the best state in heaven.

I extend my love, gratitude and thankfulness to the staff of the library, Institute of Islamic Studies especially to Janab Kabir Ahmad Khan. I cannot miss to thank the staff of the office of the department of Islamic Studies for their sincere cooperation. My thanks are also due to the librarian and staff of Maulana Azad Library AMU, Hamdard University Library, Mangalore University Library (Mangalore) and other libraries, Madaras and colleges in Karnataka and Kerala for permitting me to use the relevant books and materials in course of preparation of this thesis.

Words fail me to express gratitude to my late father and mother for their constant love, affection, selfless help and encouragement. Nothing in this world can pay the debt I owe to them for taking care of my education and supporting me in every possible way during my study. I can pray only

رزب ارحمنا كنا زينتي صغيرًا (بني إسرائيل 24)

My Lord! Bestow on them The Mercy even as they cherished me in Childhood

My wedding was held during the preparation of this research thesis. I shall be failing in my duty if I don't put on record my whole hearted gratitude to my wife Haleema Nilofer whose inspiration, cooperation, love and unconditional support always helped me. I could not forget the frolics of my son Qanit Umar. Then I am indebted to my caring brothers (Fayaz, Ijaz, Wayiz, Murshuza and Unais), sister (Aysha Subair), who provide me the opportunity to pursue the research by shouldering all the domestic burdens. I am equally thankful my brother in law (Sarfaraz Nawaz) and sister in laws (Fathima Zuhra, Shareefa) and family members. Special thanks are due to my father-in-law, Mr. Hasan, mother in law Khadija and brother in laws.

The intelligentsia to whom I would like to express my gratefulness in this context includes Janab Quazi Arshad Ali, Tanveer Ahmad, Maqbool Ahmad Siraj, K.M. Muhammad, Umaraft U.H., Abdul Qadeer Salih, Mastan Birudar, Istiaque, Tauseef and M. Sharif for their timely help especially for supplying the necessary materials on my request. I have benefited a lot from the collection of literary documents maintained by them.
