LIST OF CONTENTS

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS................................................................. vii-viii
LIST OF TABLES................................................................. ix
LIST OF FIGURES/ DIAGRAMS....................................................... x
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS............................................................... xi-xiv
THESIS ABSTRACT................................................................. xv-xvi

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION.......................................................... 1-30
1.1. Introduction
1.2. Hijras and MtF Transgenders/ Transsexuals in India
   1.2.1. Religious-cultural background
   1.2.2. Hijra jamaat
   1.2.3. Mughal rule and the colonial period
1.3. Situation of Transgenders in Independent India
   1.3.1. Health situation
1.4. HIV/ AIDS and Hijra & Transgender/ Transsexual Activism In India
1.5. Aravani Activism in Tamil Nadu
1.6. Research Questions
1.7. Research Design
1.8. Sources of Data Collection
1.9. Selection of Sample
1.10. Data Collection Method and Tools for Data Collection
   1.10.1. Process used during the group discussions
1.11. Data Analysis
1.12. Limitations of the Research Study
1.13. Thesis Chapters

CHAPTER 2: LABELS AND DEFINITIONS........................................... 31-37
2.1. Transgenderism and Transsexualism – An Overview
2.2. Medicalization and Pathologization of Transsexualism
2.3. Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity (SOGI)
2.4. Feminism, Queer Theory, and Transgender Theory

CHAPTER 3: ARAVANI ACTIVISM, COLLECTIVIZATION AND MOVEMENT
DEVELOPMENT................................................................. 38-67
3.1. Introduction
3.2. Coining of the Term ‘Aravani’
   3.2.1. Koovagam festival
3.3. Historicity of Aravani/Transgender Activism in Tamil Nadu
   3.3.1. Role of family
   3.3.2. Violation of transgender rights and violence against transgenders
   3.3.3. Harassment from police and rowdies
   3.3.4. Discrimination within the health set-up
   3.3.5. Access and use of public services
   3.3.6. Discrimination and bullying
   3.3.7. Transgender acceptance more in the lower-class strata
   3.3.8. HIV/AIDS intervention programmes among transgenders
   3.3.9. Campaigns and events
   3.3.10. Support for voting rights
   3.3.11. Public Hearing
   3.3.12. Commonality of identities
   3.3.13. Role of media
3.4. Transgender Welfare Reforms in Tamil Nadu
   3.4.1. Transgender welfare schemes
   3.4.2. Transgender Welfare Board
   3.4.3. Free higher education
   3.4.4. Formation of SHGs and promotion of IGPs
   3.4.5. Free Sex Reassignment Surgery (SRS) in Tamil Nadu
3.5. Conclusion

CHAPTER 4: ARAVANI MOVEMENT, JAMAAT, AND THE STATE …… 68-88
4.1. Introduction
4.2. Response of State/ Nature of the State
   4.2.1. Periyar ideology
4.3. Leadership vis-à-vis Aravani Jamaat
   4.3.1. Aravani jamaat vs. organizational work
4.4. Transgender Sexuality: Significant Criteria for Inclusion and Exclusion
4.5. Conclusion

CHAPTER 5: POLITICS OF PASSING AND BODY MODIFICATIONS…. 89-114
5.1. Introduction
5.2. Trans(gender) Identities – A debate
5.3. Transgender Sexuality
5.4. Various Trans(Gender) Identities and Multiple Transgender Sexualities
   5.4.1. Trans(gender) identities/terms
   5.4.2. Transgender sexuality
5.5. Politics of Passing and Body Modifications
   5.5.1. Body modifications, passing as a woman, and womanhood
   5.5.2. Politics of procreation
5.6. Conclusion

CHAPTER 6: SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION

6.1. Aravani Activism, Collectivization, Mobilization, and Movement Development
6.2. Relationship with the State
6.3. Growing Significance of the State and Individual Rights Gained Through Collective Action Leading to Steady Decline of Jamaat Control
6.4. Breaking Away From the Binary
6.5. The Sexed Body and Unsexed Gender Relations

REFERENCES

BIBLIOGRAPHY

APPENDICES

Appendix 1 – Interview Guide for Transgender (Hijra/Aravani) People
Appendix 2 – Interview Guide for Supporters
Appendix 3 – Interview Guide for Doctor
Appendix 4 – Questions for Group Discussion with Members of Transgender CBOs / NGOs
Appendix 5 – RTI Questions Filed
Appendix 6 – RTI reply received from Government Kilpauk Medical College Hospital, Chennai
Appendix 7 – Memorandum submitted by THAA to the Social Welfare Minister, Tamil Nadu
Appendix 8 – Tamil Nadu Government Gazette 2011