ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

During the period of completion of this thesis, I came into contact with many persons to whom I owe a debt of gratitude for their valuable cooperation and inspiration.

I am extremely thankful to my family who bore patiently all the inconveniences while I was busy in this thesis work.

I am deeply indebted to Ms. J. Kameswari for her readiness to supervise this work in spite of her various engagements. Without her co-operation, it would have been really difficult to complete this work.

I am thankful for the understanding, inspiration and unfailing support which was extended by the teachers of the History Department and also the university authorities.

Special gratitude is due to G. Krishna Garu (Journalist) for his perceptiveness, enthusiasm and help extended.

I am highly indebted to the help rendered by various libraries. I thank National Archives (New Delhi), Teen Murthi Bhavan (New Delhi), Andhra Pradesh State Archives (Tarnaka) staff for their cooperation, State Central Library (Afzalgunj), City Central Library (Chikkadpally), Sri Krishna Devaraya Andhra Bhasha Nilayam (Sultan Bazar). I am also thankful to P. Sundaraiah Vignanakendram's staff, Anjuman-Khawateen-e-Deccan (Banjarahills), Osmania University Library, Telugu university Library, Vetapalem Library (Cheeralal).

There are many eminent men and women who helped in my research. I highly value their assistance and acknowledge it with gratitude. I owe much to them.

I take the responsibility for all the shortcomings of this thesis.

I thank Gangaji and Mareechika for typing the thesis.

R. Swara pa Rani