Acknowledgement

I have always wondered as to how with limitation of words and space one can acknowledge persons near to himself. With much apprehension in my mind, I am writing this acknowledge. However, I find it pleasant to owe debts of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Yogesh Sharma. In J. N. U., I could not have achieved anything substantial without his enlighten guidance. He has constantly tried to divert my approaches from negative to positive one. Sir has instructed me greatly from his own considerable knowledge about life and happiness. The ideas and experiences which he shared with me to augment my understanding helped me a lot.

It was in J. N. U. only that I was able to have such person as my supervisor. My stay in the university especially in the centre for historical studies greatly helped in enhancement of my knowledge. It was in fact a privilege to be attached to the institution that has witnessed renowned historians like Prof. Satish Chandra, Prof. Bipin Chandra and Prof. Romila Thapar. I will be indebted to Prof. Satish Chandra for giving his valuable time to me at his residence. Along with them, I am highly obliged to my teachers at C. H. S., Prof. Muzzafar Alam, Prof. Harbans Mukhia, Prof. Dilbag Singh, Prof. K. K. Trivedi, Dr. Arvind Sinha, Dr. Pious, Dr. Joy and Dr. Najaf Haider among others.

My Hostel mates of Brahmputra Hostel made me feel comfortable even some thousand miles away from Home. It has developed as my second home. The people around namely, Yadav ji, Sardar ji, Prem, Pramod, Dahiya ji, Pan Singh and Mauyaji greatly helped me during my stay at Brahmputra. Vijay was a constant companion. I owe a debt to several of my friends in J. N. U. who always stood along with me physically, mentally and financially. Among them Shushant helped me a lot in completion of this thesis. Otherwise also, he is a great person, friend and companion. I am also thankful to Vaibhav, Murari, Yogi, Kalim, Netaji Abhinandan, Amit, Shravan, Arvind, Vikash, Binit, Sanjeev, Gaurav, Vishal, Alankar, Nitin, Vivek, Dharamjeet, Prabhat, Saurabh, Projit, Kalyan, Ballu, Sachin, Vir Narayan, Vikram, and others. Vaibhav, Murari and Yogi were with me right from the beginning of my stay at J. N. U. Netaji, Arvind and Vikas has the solutions to almost all my queries.
Alankar, Vishal and Gaurav are too kind of a person. I must acknowledge Ashutosh, Dilip, Dimpu, Pankaj, Binit, his brother Amit Bhaiya and Bhabhiji to provide a homely atmosphere. Amit and Shravan are like my essentials without whom I may be alone.

I am indebted to Indian Council of Historical Research (I.C.H.R.) for providing me the Research Fellowship, which helped me immensely in completing my Thesis. I must also thank to the staffs of National Archives of India, I.C.H.R. Library, Teen Murty Library, Central Secretariat Library, J.N.U. Library, Khuda Baksh Oriental Public Library, Patna, K. P. Jayaswal Research Institute, Patna Museum and the D.S.A. Library of our centre.

This thesis is an outcome of excessive pain and support on the part of my family. The love and care of both my father and mother made me feel comfortable and relaxed. While, my Maa constantly directs me towards the best, my Papa, keeping his cool allows me to choose my own way. That is in fact an amazing but beneficial combination. I will always desire their love and affection. My elder brother, Bhaiya, Dr. Santosh is most lovable person. No one will be having or will ever have such a Bhaiya. I greatly respect and admire his capabilities. My Bhaiya knew it very well that I have the capacity to do something good and I hope he will be little bit satisfied from my performance. Also, my chote bhai- Shravan (Sarnu) and Babu (Satya) are like my two eyes. I find myself handicapped when they are not very near to me. I am also thankful to my sisters and Jija ji for their affection.
