CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION  Pages 1-77

Situating History—Writings on Indian Nationalism

Political Trajectory of Rajendra Prasad up to 1934

The Scheme of Chapterization

Chapter I  RAJENDRA PRASAD: PRESIDENT OF THE CONGRESS  Pages 78-138

(1934-35)

Changing Configuration of Political Forces and Background of Rajendra Prasad’s Election as President

The Bombay Session of the Congress

Outlining a Blueprint for the Future

Issues at the Session and Attempts to Reinvigorate the Organization of the Congress

Facing the Central Assembly Elections

Taking the Congress to the Masses

Attempts to Resolve the Communal Tangle: Rajendra Prasad-Jinnah Talks

Concentrates on the Plan of Taking the Congress to the Masses

The Quetta Earth-Quake

Attitude towards the Peoples’ Movement in Princely States

Taking the Congress to the Masses

The Golden Jubilee Celebrations of the Congress

Chapter II  THE STRATEGIC DEBATE AND THE PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS  Pages 139-188

(1936-37)

Differing Perceptions with the Left