Contents

Introduction
- Evolution of Dowry as a Social Institution in India: 3
- The Practice of Dowry in India: From Support to the Subjugation of Women: 4
- Theories of Gift and Giving: 7
- Women as the Vanguards of Gift-giving: 10
- Respected Tradition and Modern Monstrosity: 12
- Cannibalizing all other Local Customs: 15
- Consumerism, Caste, Class and the Intensification of Dowry in Post-1990 Period: 16
- Perspectives on Sex and Gender: 18
- Women and Culture: 21
- The Ideology of the Indian Women’s Movement: 22
- Women and State Intervention in India: 27
- Caste: 29
- Status and Class: 30
- Patriarchy: 31
- Class Domination and Sexual Ideology: 34
- Dowry, Women’s Property Rights and the Value of Women’s Work: 35
- Dowry and Inheritance: 37
- Dowry Distribution and Control: 41
- Objectives of the study: 43
- Methodology: 43
- Chapterization: 44

Chapter – 1: Theoretical Perspectives and Methodology
- Structural Functionalist Perspective: 48
- Dowry: 49
- Bride Wealth: 50
- Structuralist Perspective: 51
- Marriage Prestations: 52
- Feminist Social Theories: Liberalism, Essentialism, Marxism, Socialism, Post-Modernity: 54
- Hypothesis: 58
- Objectives of Study: 59
- Methodology: 60

Chapter – 2: Review of Literature: Women, Continuity and Change
- Limitations in Available Literature: 70
- Woman as Tribute, Woman as Flower: 73
- Marriage and Sexuality: 77
- Marriage Transactions and the Value on Virginity: 79
Women: Circumstances Versus Choice 84
Women and Religion 85
Sita-Consciousness amongst Women 86
Sexual Objectification of Women: East versus West 87
Feminine Values and the Necessity of Marriage for Modern Woman. 88
Women, Marriage and the Subordination of Rights. 90
Subservience and Manipulation: A Tussle for Control of Power between Mother-in-law and Daughter-in-law. 91
A New Brand of Woman? 92
The Working Woman: An Expert Juggler 98
Education and Employment 101
Married Employed….not Empowered 103
Marriage: The Cultural Setting 104
The Insulation of Status from other Forms of Power 108
Universal Rules of Indian Marriages 115
Dowry: A Part of Complex Marriage Transactions 118
Marriage, Media and Mate Selection 120
General Character of the Advertisements 121
Considerations for Marriage 122
Expectations and Negotiations 126
Factors Determining the Size of the Dowry 127
Arranged Marriages 128
Love Marriages and Dowry 131
Wedding Celebration and Conspicuous Consumption 133
Wedding an Occasion for Channeling Black Money 136
Changing Institution of Marriage in India 138
Objectification and Glorification of Women in the Media 141
Indian Wedding Industry Growing at 25% Annually 142
Marriage, Market and Dowry 145
Traditional Roots and Bitter Fruits of Dowry: Causes and Effects 148
Repercussions of Dowry Prevalance 166
Women as a Category of Analysis, or, are We All Sisters in Struggle? 172
Women as Victims of Male Violence 173
Domestic Violence and Dowry 174
Prevalence of Domestic Violence in Indian Society 176
Violence and the Size of Dowry 177
A Multi-Factor Model of Dowry Deaths 180
Dowry Deaths, 1994 Source: National Crimes Bureau, Home Ministry 185
Laws in India Pertaining to Dowry 187
Adapting Global Discourse to Local Demands: Women’s Human Rights and Traditional Practice of Dowry in India 188
Chapter – 3: Orissa

- Oriya Wedding Customs and Rituals

Bhubaneshwar - Presentation of Data

- Field Study in Bhubaneshwar
- Criterion for Sample
- Universe of Study
- Gift and Dowry: Prevailing Vagueness
- Education and Dowry
- Employment of Women and Dowry
- Medium of Mate Selection
- Dowry and the Role of Media:
  - Positive Role of Media
  - Usage of Media for Marriage and Social Networking
  - Negative Role of the Media
- Dowry and Streedhanam vs. Parental Property
- Dowry, Law and Public Awareness: A Dark Continent
- Reasons for the Resurgence and Escalation of Dowry
- Role of Mediator in Deciding the Dowry
- Love Marriages and Dowry
- Observations
  - The Dynamics of “Need and Greed”
  - The Dynamics of “Hidden Cause and Demonstration Effect”
  - The Factor of “Economic Boom and Social Doom”

Chapter – 4: Cuttack - Presentation of Data

- Universe of Study
- Findings of Field Study
- Dowry and its Ingredients: Gifts vs. Dowry
- Education and Dowry: A Proportional Relationship?
- Employed Status of Woman and Dowry
- Compulsory Marriage and Related Considerations
- Consideration for Marriage
- Medium of Mate-Selection
- Love, Inter-caste and Arranged Marriages and Dowry
- Daughters’ Right to Inheritance and Dowry
- Whether Married Women should Claim their Share?
- Inheritance as an Alternative to Dowry
- Break up from Natal Family
- Justifications for giving Dowry
- Role of Media and Dowry:
  - Positive Role of Media
  - Negative Role of Media
- Law, Dowry and Public Awareness: Veiled Rebecca
State Intervention and Dowry Situation in Orissa

Chapter - 5: Analysis and Discussion

- Deductions
- Flaws within Family and Society
- Flaws in the Laws
- Ambiguity over Gift versus Dowry: Judgment of the Supreme Court
- Flaws in the System (Police, Courts, Cells, etc)
- Role of the Family
- Governmental Efforts
- Role of the Media
- Banning of Advertisements that Stereotype Women
- Role of Laws
- Role of Public Figures
- Democratization for Combating Domestic Violence
- Measures for the Eradication of Dowry: 6 Point Program to Eradicate Dowry and Bride-Burning In India

Conclusion

- Quit Dowry Crusade on the Internet
- Impact of Global Recession on the Marital Prospects
- Future Debates
  - Are Inheritance Rights a Solution to the Dowry Problem?
  - Anti-Dowry Laws – Instruments of Blackmail by Women?
- Modern Marriage: Revising the Cultural Script
- Relevance of the Study
- Trials and Tribulations of the Researcher

Appendix - 1: Summary of the Case Studies

Appendix -2: Questionnaire

Bibliography