ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely grateful to my supervisor, Prof. Muchkund Dubey, for supervising my work and the encouragement he has given throughout the course of my research. But for his support, I would not have been able to submit this work. The Chairperson of my Centre, Prof. Nancy Jetley, has always been considerate and helped me in a number of ways. To her, I am greatly indebted.

I thank all the faculty and students of the South Asia Division for their care and affection.

I thank the staff of the Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, Parliament of India Library, IDSA Library and Teen Murti Library for the help they had rendered.

My parents, brother and relatives have always been concerned about me. They readily extended support to all my endeavours.

Several friends have helped me in numerous ways during my stay and research in Delhi. Especially, I am grateful to Jibby for everything. Murali, Raman, Nasreen, Sudhakar, Srinivasulu and Vijaya Sekhar have helped me in various ways during the course of this study, for which I am grateful to them. I am thankful to Prasanth for his timely help.

I thank the University Grants Commission for providing the Junior Research Fellowship.

Finally, I alone am responsible for any errors that may have crept in inadvertently in this study.
