ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My initial thanks are always reserved for my revered deity who has provided me the strength and bestowed me with this providence to carry this out to the best of my abilities.

I express my deep sense of gratitude and profound reverence to my esteemed supervisor Dr. Sandeep Berwal, Associate Professor, B.P.S. institute of Teacher Training and Research, Bhagat Phool Singh Mahila Vishvavidyalaya (BPSMV), Khanpur Kalan, Sonipat for his all out encouragement, generous help, expert guidance, constructive criticism and stimulating assistance in the planning and execution of this piece of research work. Without his help and constant supervision, this study would not have been completed. It was a proud privilege and an unforgettable experience to work under the supervision of such a learned person. His constant supervision and encouragement enabled me to go ahead and complete this thesis. His light up knowledge and wisdom will always help me rise in life personally as well as professionally.

Heartiest gratitude are also rendered to all the yoga instructors, Sh. Yashpal Arya (Sonipat), Smt. Santosh (Panipat) and Smt. Aruna Malik, (Panchkula), who inspired, encouraged and provided their generous help and guidance in the planning and execution of yogic intervention programme. They organized yoga classes for students with disabilities on my behalf. Without their support, it would not be possible for me to conduct yoga classes simultaneously at three places.

I am also thankful to the Dean and Faculty members of B.P.S. institute of Teacher Training and Research, BPSMV, Khanpur Kalan, Sonipat, for providing necessary facilities.

I am also thankful to all the principals/heads and teachers of all the sampled special schools for providing necessary facilities for data collection.
I am also extremely thankful to the students who joined the intervention programme for the present study. Without their painstaking co-operation this work could not be brought to completion.

I would like to thank the Departmental library staff of B.P.S. institute of Teacher Training and Research, BPSMV, Khanpur Kalan, Sonipat, for procuring all the required books and journal articles. I also express my gratitude to the administrative staff for their kind support and co-operation.

I feel proud to thank my family members because they have been with me at every step in this journey. My Mother-in-Law; Smt. Santosh and Mausi; Smt. Saroj have always been a source of constant support in my academic career. I am confident that it is her blessings that I have sailed through this time smoothly and to the best of my abilities.

Lastly, I would like to thank the person who is most dear and loved.

My husband; Mr. Vikas Gahlawat has been my strength, patience, diligence and attitude. He has been a part of this whole experience and given all the required support and love. I understand that it is not easy to bear with a spouse who is into a full-time academic engagement but he always motivated me to travel the extra mile. Last but not the least, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my daughter, and son; Bhuman and Yushan for being so patient and cooperative, who have motivated me and taken pride in my achievements. Without their help it would not be possible and their love and support have kept me going far and their love will keep me going further. I know that the feelings I hold towards my family members cannot be expressed in words. Thank you all once again.

Last but not the least, I am indebted to all the great scholars and researchers whose remarkable research work paved the way in designing the current study.

Date: Savita Chahal