I greatly appreciate the help received from number of people during the course of the study. It will not be possible for me to acknowledge all of them. However, I wish to acknowledge some people without whom this work might not be possible.

Dr. Anshu Gupta: for introducing me to the world of science; for your competent guidance, untiring efforts, constant support, and care during the course of the study. For helping me in acquiring research skills for example planning and execution of experiments, thinking and analyzing capacity, graph or poster making, calculations, manuscript writing and lot more. You have always listen to my problems showed me the path or hope to overcome the difficult situations of life, for which I will be always grateful to you. Your enthusiasm and interest in research has always motivated and inspired me. Though I am not able to stand perfectly in your aspirations but I can definitely say that whatever little I have achieved in my research life is because of your help, support, and guidance.

Prof. Amarjeet Kaur: for giving opportunity to work under your supervision, your constant support, care, encouragement, appreciation, and guidance has always helped me while doing wok on this thesis. Instead of having very busy schedule, you have always given value time to me. Paid attention to my problems and help me to sort out that whenever I come to you. I can surely say that it would not have been possible for me to work on this thesis without your kind help, support and guidance. Thank you, Madam for everything.

Dr. Darshan Malik: for your kind concern, constant emotional or moral support, encouragement, fruitful guidance, and supervision. I would greatly appreciate your help and support provided during the work. I can again surely say that it would not have been possible for me to work on this thesis without your kind help, support and guidance. Thank you, Madam for everything.

Prof. Anubha Kaushik (Dean) and Prof. P. Bhattacharya (Former Dean), University School of Environment Management (USEM): for providing suggestions and all the necessary facilities.

Prof. J.K Garg (Former Dean), USEM: for your advice, helpful suggestions and for always being there with a supporting and caring hand. Also for providing necessary facilities.
All faculty members and staff of USEM: for help and immense support during the tenure.

University School of Biotechnology, University School of Chemical Technology, GGS Indraprastha University for giving permission to use some instruments during initial phase of Ph.D work.

Mr. Samsher Singh: for great helping hand during set up of laboratory at Dwarka campus, for your valuable suggestions and behavior. Also for bearing with my short temper at times and for listening my unfair words.

Bayan A. Mahdi, Vandana Saini, Nidhi Goyal, Nikita Singhal, and Anjum Singhal: for the assistance and respect given, for creating a lively atmosphere in the laboratory, as well as for helping me to learn and understand lots of science. Especial thanks to Ms. Anjum Singhal for helping me in thesis editing.

Thanks to Ms. Sweta Garg and Ananya Mukherjee for providing industrial wastewater samples.

Maheshji and Pooranji, laboratory staff of USEM: for your help and support in procurement of chemicals, instruments, and for allowing to use general lab whenever I need it.

Mr. Ankur Sharma, USEM: for help and co-operation received during the study.
