BIBLIOGRAPHY
Bibliography

- Agarwal, V. (1994) - Stress and multiple role of women. Indian journal of social science, 7(3-4), 319-333

- Blumberg, Rhoda Llois and Dwarid, Leela (1980)- India’s educated women options and constraints. Hindustan Publication Corporation, Delhi.

• Hussain, K. and Sharma (1994) - Marital adjustment and its correlates among working and non working women. Journal of personality and clinical studies 10(1-2), 71-75.

• Mathur, M. (1996)- Self esteem and attitudes towards women's role among women in conventional and male dominated professions. Souvenir, 2nd, National Conference of Psycho-linguistics Association of India (PLAI) P- 94.

Napholz, - Linda (1994) - Dysphoria among Hispanic working women : A research note. Hispanic - Journal of Behavioural Science; Vol.16(4),500-509

• Sahoo, Fakir M; Bidyadhar, Swetaleena (1994) - Critical factors of work-family linkage: An application of Lens model to generate indigenous dimensions. Psychology and Developing Societies; Vol. 6(2), 169-185.

• Shenoy, (1987) - Stressfulness of daily roles, personality and mental health. M. Phil. Dissertation, Bangalore University, Bangalore.

• Shirali, K. and Bharadwaj (1994) - Family Communication and adjustment of female adolescents of working mothers in the hills. Journal of personality and clinical studies, 10(1-2), 59-64.

• Singhal, M. (1968) - Socio-economic study of working women in a selected village of Delhi, Ph.D. Thesis Delhi University.

• Uma (1981) - Study of some variables influencing psychological symptoms in middle aged women. M. Phil. dissertation, Bangalore University Bangalore.

