ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to centre’s Chairperson and my supervisor Prof. Ganganath Jha, for his continuous guidance, careful and reasoned criticism, meticulous attention and encouragement. Words are too few to mention all his help and support. The present work bears at every stage the impressions of his invaluable suggestions which cleared my concepts and apprehensions. Were it not for his constant mentoring and assistance, I would not have completed this study.

My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. Man Mohini Kaul and Dr. Mahesh Debata for their ever helping attitude. I would also like to acknowledge Prof. Rajaram Panda, Senior Research Fellow, Institute of Defence and Strategic Analysis, New Delhi, who provided utmost support and encouragement for the completion of this work. My profound thanks are due to him.

I would like to take this opportunity to express a special appreciation for the guidance of Prof. Takashi Inoguchi in Japan. His continuous support to promote the pursuit of scholarly endeavour, and the quest of knowledge, nurturing the capability of critical thinking proved of immense importance in the completion of this research work. As the Director of Asia Barometer Survey, he allowed me the full usage of the Asia Barometer Survey Data 2007, which enriched my thesis. For all his generosity and kindness, I am indebted to him.

Here I would also like to express gratefulness to Prof. Monte Cassim, President, Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University; Prof. Aftab Seth (former ambassador) and Prof. Tomofumi Anegawa of Keio University for their thought provoking interactions and support during the completion of this work. Mr. Ashok Roy, senior advisor, Wasserstein India, Ms. Rika Sasaki of Japan Institute of International Affairs, also provided fruitful insight. My humble regards are also due to Mr. Tsunehiko Kawamoto (Otousan) and Ms. Yoshiko Kawamoto (Okasan) for their love and support.
I am also thankful to the University Grants Commission, Government of India, for providing me with the Junior and the Senior Research Fellowships; and the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, Government of Japan, for providing me the Monbukagakusho Scholarship to complete my study. The Librarian and staffs of Jawaharlal Nehru University, Indian Council of World Affairs, Japan Bank of International Co-operation, Japan Cultural and Information Centre, Institute of Defence and Strategic Analysis, New Delhi; and members and staffs of Chuo University, United Nations University, Diet Library, ASEAN-Japan Centre, Tokyo, made available important books and documents. My profound thanks are due to them for the selfless services rendered. I am also thankful to JASSO for providing me with Komaba International House for a pleasant stay in Japan for two long years.

I am indebted to my friends who constantly encouraged and supported me during the period of work, directly or indirectly. Here, I would just like to acknowledge the name of my friend Ms. Kaori Takaesu of Japan, Dr. Suresh Munuswamy, Muthuramanswamy, Dr. Ali Zaidi, Kamran, Ashish Lahoti, for their ever helping attitude, constant encouragement and support.

Many others have accorded help in this effort but limitations of space herein prevents me from citing them individually but I wish to reiterate my indebtedness to all those whose support gave me forbearance in completion of this work.

Finally, I must thank my family members whose support and love I always take for granted, but, without them I would have never been able to stand in my own right. Their prayers and well wishes have bolstered my spirit at all times.

Every effort has been made to present objective viewpoints but in case of shortcomings, I accept complete responsibility for the lapses or errors in the thesis.

New Delhi
14th May, 2009

Vikash Ranjan
Vikash Ranjan