Acknowledgements

Behind the successful completion of this work, the tireless efforts of my esteemed and most admired supervisor, Prof. Savita Pande has been very decisive. She not only guided me through the entire process of this study, but also spared her precious time in reading and correcting the manuscript a number of times. I owe my deep gratitude to Prof. Pande for her constant encouragement, insightful interventions and intellectual inputs, which inspired me to keep improving this study. She bore with my anxieties at every stage of this work with utmost patience. Her faith on my ability was the greatest motivating factor.

I take this opportunity to tender my sincere thanks to all my teachers and the supportive staff at the Centre for South, Central, South East Asia and South West Pacific Studies (CSCSEASWPS) their unstinted help and cooperation. I am also grateful to the staff of the JNU library, Indian Council of World Affairs, Institute for Defence Studies and Analysis, Nehru Memorial Library for their assistance in tracking down the required study materials.

I am indebted to my parents, my husband and son, Yan, without whose support and understanding, I could not have completed this voluminous work at the first place.

I would like to express my gratitude to my friends Manisha Saini and Kalyani Ramanathan for their co-operation, moral support and encouragement in the course of my study. I am also grateful to my juniors, particularly Nitish and Sitakant for their timely help at every stage.

I am thankful to Mr. A. D. Bahuguna who took great pains to type out parts of this thesis with great precision.

For all the omissions and errors in this work, I am solely to be held responsible.
